Live Free or Die Lawfully: A devotional commentary on Galatians Joshua Wingerd, 2019-10-28 There are only two paths Freedom or Slavery Spirit or Flesh Faith or Law Blessing or Cursing Life or Death Which path are you on This is Paul's argument in the first letter he ever wrote under the Spirit's inspiration He wants his readers then and now to live in the path of freedom and life The Galatians had traded salvation by grace alone through faith alone for a gospel of works of Law Paul has some seemingly harsh words for them because to replace grace with anything else is to destroy the Gospel of Jesus Christ

The Works of John Owen John Owen, 1995 Hope in Times of Fear Timothy Keller, 2021-03-09 The Resurrection accounts of Jesus in the Gospels are the most dramatic and impactful stories ever told One similarity unites each testimony that none of his most loyal and steadfast followers could see it was him back from the dead The reason for this is at the very foundation of the Christian faith She turned around and saw Jesus standing there but she did not realize that it was Jesus John 20 14 Hope in the Time of Fear is a book that unlocks the meaning of Jesus's resurrection for readers Easter is considered the most solemn and important holiday for Christians It is a time of spiritual rebirth and a time of celebrating the physical rebirth of Jesus after three days in the tomb For his devoted followers nothing could prepare them for the moment they met the resurrected Jesus Each failed to recognize him All of them physically saw him and yet did not spiritually truly see him It was only when Jesus reached out and invited them to see who he truly was that their eyes were open Here the central message of the Christian faith is revealed in a way only Timothy Keller could do it filled with unshakable belief piercing insight and a profound new way to look at a story you think you know After reading this book the true meaning of Easter will no longer be unseen

The Oxford Edition of the Sermons of John Donne, Volume VII Peter McCullough, Erica Longfellow, 2024-12-11 Volume VII of The Oxford Edition of the Sermons of John Donne gathers sermons preached by Donne at different venues for the related liturgical occasions of marriages christenings and the churching of women after childbirth The volume contains ten sermons seven of them undated and in the case of the christening sermons also for parties unknown one of the two churching sermons survives only in an authorially revised state as two separate but obviously coeval sermons Longfellow and McCullough establish that these sermons were preached across almost the whole of Donne's preaching career from among his earliest ca 1615-16 to 1627 four years before his death. In each case an authoritative text has been established by freshly collating multiple copies of the seventeenth century print editions as well as multiple manuscript copies which predate the print witnesses. For the first time these sermons appear with full critical apparatus. The Introduction provides the first dedicated account of the place of sermons in the social liturgical and theological contexts of these occasions in post-Reformation England. A headnote to each sermon describes its textual state and supplies local historical social and intellectual context and suggestions for further reading. Extensive commentaries document Donne's use of sources both acknowledged and unacknowledged, translate passages in foreign languages and gloss important and unfamiliar words. Although largely neglected by previous scholarship, these sermons emerge here as unique: the only known sermons for churchings; challenging for views on women and marriage more conservative than many of Donne's contemporaries; and as evidence of Donne's Calvinist sacramental theology and his anti-Catholicism. They are also fine examples of Donne's skill in crafting emotionally compelling sermons suited to the unique demands of both occasion and auditory.
