Question

Focus

Type of Response Expected

Common Pitfalls

1

Share a significant aspect of your identity

A personal narrative that showcases a unique aspect of the applicant's values, experiences, and personality

Avoid clichés and superficial descriptions. Be introspective and reflective. Keep the focus on how the experience shaped who you are.

2

Describe a challenge & how you overcame it

An essay that shows how the applicant handled adversity and grew from the experience

Avoid presenting yourself as a victim or blaming others for your setbacks. Focus on your growth and development.

3

Discuss a time you challenged an idea or belief

An essay that demonstrates critical thinking and intellectual curiosity

Avoid controversial or offensive topics that could alienate your reader. Be respectful and open-minded.

4

Reflect on a moment of gratitude

A personal narrative that shows how someone else's actions impacted the applicant

Avoid being too general or clichéd. Be specific and thoughtful.

5

Describe a personal growth experience

An essay that showcases how the applicant learned about themselves or others

Avoid bragging or presenting yourself as perfect. Be honest about your flaws and challenges.

6

Discuss an intellectual passion

An essay that reveals the applicant's interests and curiosity

Avoid being too obscure or abstract. Make sure your passion is something you can explain in detail.

7

Share an essay on any topic

An opportunity for the applicant to showcase their writing and creativity

Avoid clichés or writing on a topic that does not showcase your unique voice and perspective. Be thoughtful and original.

How I Got Into Stanford (By A Student Who Successfully Transferred to Stanford) Mandy Howard, 2012-04-04

ABOUT THE BOOK

Lets face it competition these days is stiff More high school seniors are applying to college than ever before The increased competition means greater numbers of eager students stuck with envelopes delivering a quick thanks but no thanks rejection Maybe you didnt know exactly what you wanted from your college experience the first time you applied or youve done extremely well at a local school and are ready to swim in a sea worthy of your talent Maybe going to Stanford is your dream and you cant give up on receiving that diploma quite yet Applying as a transfer student allows the school admissions to have another look at you and presents you in a different pool of applicants Every year worthy applicants are turned away simply because of the limited capacity of the class Still transferring is tricky business Transfer admission is even more competitive than admission to the freshman class Recently there have only been between 20 and 40 transfer students admitted each year The year I transferred the number was fewer than 20 This is partially because the students at Stanford are too darn happy student retention rate at the school is typically 98%
