Culture, Entertainment and Health Promotion in Africa Kimani Njogu,2005-08-15 This book brings together multiple voices and positions from Africa These voices assembled during a 2003 Soap Summit held in Nairobi are powerful and varied and suggest ways in which issues of health could be tackled in an entertaining manner The summit organised by Population Communications International Africa highlighted the critical role that the arts can play in ensuring better health especially among the youth It resulted from the recognition that young people in Africa are faced with a myriad of problems and complications as they struggle to deal with growth and identity formation within a globalising social and economic setup They are in dire need of information on their own sexuality and how to deal with it and are getting conflicting signals from the mass media as well as their immediate environment The youth are under intense pressure from their peers to engage in premarital sex which is in most cases unprotected The HIV AIDS epidemic presents frightening challenges and all health programs should look for ways of dealing with it Of great concern is the vulnerability of women and girls in Africa due to rising poverty gender violence lack of access to youth friendly reproductive health facilities and lack of a conducive infrastructure especially in informal settlements and in the rural areas The myriad problems presented by the pandemic require a multi sectoral approach This book brings together a number of strategies being undertaken in Africa that combine entertainment and education in a positive way The voices from the Soap Summit are interspersed with those of the Editor to create a dialogue on entertainment education that contributes to the discussion on the way social change might be undertaken

Transgression in Swahili Narrative Fiction and its Reception Rémi Armand Tchokothe, 2014 This book remarkably analyses the development of recent Swahili prose narrative The main thesis is that since the 90s Swahili literature has developed to go beyond aspects that had hitherto conditioned literature in African languages local popular and didactic and has opened itself to global sophisticated and subversive perspectives Remi Tchokothe uses the leitmotif of transgression as the unifying thread to render an account of this evolution of the Swahili narrative fiction towards the disruption of narrative linearity an increase in intertextual references an awareness of globalisation in political analysis and a shift to magical realism The finishing touch to the analysis is a meticulously conducted reception survey which highlights editorial ambiguities that go with the transgressive turn Xavier Garnier U Sorbonne Nouvelle Paris 3 Series Contributions to Research on Africa Beitrage zur Afrikaforschung Vol 56

Safari Based Theology Dr. Enos Lwamba, 2012-12-21 In Safari based Theology Dr Enos Lwamba has developed an approach to theology and mission based on his proposed safari motif for the development of theology and mission Based on his Ph D dissertation The Safari Motif in the Development of Theology in Africa Dr Lwamba argues that God has used a series of divine redemptive safaris in the Bible to reveal Himself progressively to people The author develops his proposed motif around a tri dimensional conception of reality and time and explores a threefold aspect of the safari mwanzo sasa and mwisho which provide keys to the African mindset He explores the various meanings and uses of the safari idea from both a biblical and theological perspective In addition to the literal safaris journey is an analogy of the church and believers are on a divine safari individually and collectively The safari model highlights the absolute necessity of the biblical message and the contextual situation to help Christians live effective and fruitful lives in society now and in future Inspired by both John Mbitis The African Concept of Time and Paul Hieberts The Flaw of the Excluded Middle the author utilizes biblical theological historical and contextual sources to make his point In the philosophical aspect of the safari the author develops his notion of an African conception of time modeled on the cultural safari idea which he relates to development of theology and mission He refutes the western influenced or commercially based notion that safari refers to a game hunting or tourist expedition to Africa Dr Lwamba promotes the argument that the philosophical framework and methodology drawn from the safari approach provides a more effective way of doing theology and mission in Africa and other contextual situations He also draws parallels to the safari concept from such sources as Augustines City of God John Bunyans The Pilgrims Progress and others in a refreshing and original style that the reader will find engaging The motif provides interpretational and practical application tools as it harmonizes the unity of the biblical message Its practical appeal makes Safari Based Theology a must read for Christians and others interested in their daily journey of faith The author contends that just as the idea of logos described the mindset conception of divine truth and aspirations of the Greek mind the concept of safari does the same for the African This book is highly recommended for pastors missionaries and teachers as well as students of Bible and theology culture and missions and other related disciplines
