

AUTOCRACY VS DICTATORSHIP

Autocracy and dictatorship are both political systems that concentrate power in the hands of an individual or a small group.

AUTOCRACY

An autocracy is a system of government where supreme power is concentrated in the hands of a single person or a small group, without any checks or balances. The ruler in an autocracy has unlimited power and is not constitutionally accountable to the citizenry. The autocratic rule may be present in various forms such as absolute monarchy, dictatorship, or despotism.

DICTATORSHIP

A dictatorship is a form of government in which absolute power is exercised by a single person known as a dictator, usually obtained and maintained by force. In a dictatorship, the leader rules by decree, with little to no regard for rule of law or public consent. It is characterized by authoritarian control over all aspects of life, suppression of political dissent, and use of propaganda.
