Silence On Irradie:

Silence, on irradie Christophe Léon, 2009 Un village l'abri d'une centrale nucléaire Sven se baigne en catimini dans le lac qui borde la centrale l'eau y est très chaude malgré l'hiver Un jour une explosion détruit tout Sven sa petite sœur Silo et Grégoras débile l'égout survivent Lorsque des chars des hommes vêtus de combinaisons blanches arpentent le village la recherche de survivants les trois enfants se terrent Ils restent au village seuls Voilà un récit pitoyable un brin d'humour beaucoup de tendresse pour les personnages Une sorte de douceur amère se dégage de ce roman

Resilience: A New Paradigm of Nuclear Safety Joonhong Ahn, Franck Guarnieri, Kazuo Furuta, 2017-08-15 This book is published open access under a CC BY 4.0 license This book summarizes presentations and discussions from the two-day international workshop held at UC Berkeley in March 2015 and derives questions to be addressed in multi-disciplinary research toward a new paradigm of nuclear safety The consequences of the Fukushima Daiichi nuclear accident in March 2011 have fuelled the debate on nuclear safety while there were no casualties due to radiation there was substantial damage to local communities The lack of common understanding of the basics of environmental and radiological sciences has made it difficult for stakeholders to develop effective strategies to accelerate recovery and this is compounded by a lack of effective decision making due to the eroded public trust in the government and operators Recognizing that making a society resilient and achieving higher levels of safety relies on public participation in and feedback on decision making the book focuses on risk perception and mitigation in its discussion of the development of resilient communities

Sensibility and Creation Roger Cardinal, 2025-05-01 Sensibility and Creation 1977 comprises a dozen critical studies by different contributors on a selection of major French poets of the twentieth century These range from poets of long established reputation such as Paul Valéry Pierre Reverdy Saint John Perse and Paul Eluard to contemporary poets such as Yves Bonnefoy and Jacques Dupin The guiding theme is that of the characteristic sensibility which informs the creative work of each poet the way he has of selecting and patterning the elements which make up the world he inhabits and which in a sense he is also creating In some instances the poetry is examined for its selective textures and shapes and in others the critical focus is more closely directed to the linguistic and stylistic strategies adopted by the writer anxious relations with the public too difficult to be widely read Symbolist poets react to the loss of poetry's centrality among the arts by delegating their radicalism to prose they can call in prose for the overthrow of the state and support anarchist bombers while at the same time writing poems about dribbling fountains and dazzling sunsets for each other This study demonstrates the connections between the anti Symbolist reaction of the école romane of 1891 in which Charles Maurras first made his name and the far right cultural politics of Action française in the early 20th century It also redefines many of the debates about late 19th century French poetry by putting an argument forward for the political engagements of the Symbolists while the French intellectual as a national icon was being forged McGuinness insists on profound continuities between the end of the 19th century and the beginning of the 20th in terms of cultural politics literary debate and poetic theory and shows how politics is to be found in unexpected ways in the least political seeming literature of the period The famous line by Peguy that everything begins in mysticism and ends in politics has an appealing sweep and grace This book has its own more modest and specific version of a similar journey it begins in Mallarmé and ends in Maurras Pause-café
