Lower Hall. Books of English Prose Fiction, Including Juvenile Fiction. Fourth Edition, Etc BOSTON, Massachusetts. Public Library,1871 Deviant Knight N. E. Henderson,2023-10-23 How does a man get over the first woman he ever loved I didn't get to say goodbye to my mother When I watched her coffin lower into the ground I swore I'd never love another that deeply again I didn't have to I found solace in the opposite Krishna is hard like me I keep him at arm's length no matter how much I prefer him in my bed Together we can be whatever we want The monsters we keep at bay to avoid someone getting hurt can come out to play with each other My life was stable controllable Then my father issued an order I wasn't expecting a bride Ciera is soft but her eyes are constantly challenging my authority She has a backbone that only shows when her smart mouth is telling me off Aside from the physical release they provide I've never wanted a woman for more than one night but from the moment my dark gaze fell on her emerald stare I wanted to wrap my hand around her pretty little throat and claim her as mine I can't let her be my downfall I can't allow them to be my undoing I won't make my father's past mistakes I won't lose those I vowed to protect Have Mercy N. Arrest and Detention Powers in English and Turkish Law and Practice in the Light of the European Convention on Human Rights M. Bedri Eryilmaz, 2021-09-27 It is commonly believed that in the police practices of arrest without judicial warrant and detention without charge England and Turkey stand at opposite ends of the compliance spectrum among nations signatory to the European Convention on Human Rights This is the first book to examine the extent to which such belief is warranted Beginning with a detailed comparison of the arrest and detention standards set by the Convention and the corresponding provisions of Turkish and English law the author then proceeds to investigate actual police practice in both countries He reviews and analyzes the existing research in England and Wales on how the status of suspects in practice compares with the status of suspects in law To determine this in Turkey where no such research existed before this book he offers the results of his own field work in 21 Turkish police stations and three gendarmeries in various cities and towns as well as in two Turkish anti terrorist departments This is the first publication of any research into how Turkish police apply law to practice He goes on to examine the adequacy and effectiveness of remedies in both countries and to make recommendations not only for reform in England and Turkey but to the Convention organs with respect to gaps and weaknesses in their case law For criminal justice and law enforcement authorities this is a valuable guide to ensuring compliance with the extensive and developed standards established by the case law of the Convention and to handling allegations of breaches of the Convention by the police In addition Arrest and Detention Powers in Turkish and English Law and Practice in the Light of the European Convention on Human Rights is a penetrating analysis of law in books versus law in action and as such has relevance to anyone concerned with the enforcement of human rights law
