National Bureau of Standards,1934 Illustrated Catalogue of Books, Standard and Holiday McClurg, Firm, Booksellers, Chicago,1913 Quintus Claudius, Volume 1 (of 2) (English Edition) Ernst Eckstein, It was in Rome itself in the sublime solemnity of the Colosseum among the ruins of the palaces of the Caesars and crumbling pillars of the temples of the gods that the first dreamy outlines rose before my fancy of the figures here offered to the reader s contemplation Each visit added strength to the mysterious impulse to conjure up from their tombs these shadows of a mighty past and afterwards at home where the throng of impressions sorted and grouped themselves at leisure my impulse ripened to fulfilment I will not pause here to dwell on the fact that the period of Imperial rule in Rome bears in its whole aspect a stronger resemblance to the XIXth century than perhaps any other epoch before the Reformation for without reference to this internal affinity we should be justified in using it for the purpose of Romance simply by the fact that hardly another period has ever been equally full of the stirring conflict of purely human interest and of dramatic contrasts in thought feeling and purpose I must be permitted to add a word as to the notes I purposely avoided disturbing the reader of the story by references in the text and indeed the narrative is perfectly intelligible without any explanation The notes in short are not intended as explanatory but merely to instruct the reader and complete the picture they also supply the sources and give the evidence on which I have drawn From this point of view they may have some interest for the general public unfamiliar with the authorities

Jan Storm van Leeuwen gives in this work an elaborate general historical introduction to his subject. It also contains a general introduction to each province as they were known in the eighteenth century and an extensive overall picture of the towns where luxury bindings were manufactured, describing the bookbinder's workshops and binderies of each town. The historical introduction is completed with a catalogue of the approximately 2000 relevant bindings in the collections of the Koninklijke Bibliotheek National Library of the Netherlands and its sister institution the Museum Meermanno Westreenianum. About 1500 other bindings that the author studied over time in other collections are also described. But the most important feature of this work is that all nearly 10 000 stamps on these bindings are represented by a picture. Never before so many bindings 3500 have been recorded, described and discussed in such detail and with the benefit of an established model and terminology.

Albany Institute of History and Art Tammi K. Groft, Mary Alice Mackay, 1998-01-01. Founded in 1791 the Albany Institute of History and Art is one of the nation's oldest cultural institutions. Today it boasts outstanding collections largely focused on New York State's Upper Hudson Valley. These include Hudson River School landscape paintings, portraits by Ezra Ames and Charles Loring Elliott, sculpture by Erastus Dow Palmer, landscape and interior paintings by Walter Launt Palmer, and Albany-made silver and other crafts. This comprehensive overview of the Albany Institute of History and Art's American art and decorative arts collections presents color plates and essays on about 130 objects of a total exceeding 20 000. Dating from the beginning of the seventeenth century to the 1990s, each object in this volume was chosen for its national significance, artistic merit, and relevance to the Institute's mission of collecting and interpreting the art history and culture of New York State's Upper Hudson Valley through four centuries.
