At that time the intrepid Tartarin lived in the third house on the left as the town begins on the Avignon road A pretty little villa in the local style with a front garden and a balcony behind the walls glaringly white and the venetians very green and always about the doorsteps a brood of little Savoyard shoe blackguards playing hopscotch or dozing in the broad sunshine with their heads pillowed on their boxes Outwardly the dwelling had no remarkable features and none would ever believe it the abode of a hero but when you stepped inside ye gods and little fishes what a change From turret to foundation stone I mean from cellar to garret the whole building wore a heroic front even so the garden O that garden of Tartarin s there s not its match in Europe Not a native tree was there not one flower of France nothing hut exotic plants gum trees gourds cotton woods cocoa and cacao mangoes bananas palms a baobab nopals cacti Barbary figs well you would believe yourself in the very midst of Central Africa ten thousand leagues away It is but fair to say that these were none of full growth indeed the cocoa palms were no bigger than beet root and the baobab arbos gigantea giant tree you know was easily enough circumscribed by a window pot but notwithstanding this it was rather a sensation for Tarascon and the townsfolk who were admitted on Sundays to the honour of contemplating Tartarin s baobab went home chokeful of admiration Tartarin de Tarascon Alphonse Daudet,2017-10-17 Excerpt from Tartarin de Tarascon Edited With Notes And Vocabulary In November 1861 Daudet2 and a fellow traveler set out from southern France to hunt lions in Algeria To tell the truth I didn t go to Algeria expressly to hunt lions Above all I wanted to caulk my somewhat dilapidated lungs in the good warm sunshine But as soon as I set foot on the deck of the Zouaw on which our enormous box of weapons had been em barked I really imagined that I was going to exterminate all the wild beasts of the Atlas Mountains The trip across the Mediterranean the city of Algiers and its environs the valley of the Chelifi River groves of tropical trees barking jackals Moorish guitars the outlandish antics of his tmveling compau ion all these sights and experiences left their record in the little green note books that Daudet brought back with him and from them he elaborated T artan n de Tarascon About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Tartarin De Tarascon (With Noted and Vocabulary).
