Memory Fragmentation from Below and Beyond the State Anne Bazin, Emmanuelle Hébert, Valérie Rosoux, Eric Sangar, 2023-05-22 This volume suggests a model of collective memory that distinguishes between two conceptual logics of memory fragmentation vertical fragmentation and horizontal fragmentation It offers a series of case studies of conflict and post conflict collective memory shedding light on the ways various actors participate in the production dissemination and contestation of memory discourses With attention to the characteristics of both vertical and horizontal memory fragmentation the book addresses the plurality of diverging and often conflicting memory discourses that are produced within the public sphere of a given community It analyzes the juxtaposition tensions and interactions between narratives produced beyond or below the central state often transcending national boundaries The book is structured according to the type of actors involved in a memory fragmentation process. It explores how states have been trying to produce and impose memory discourses on civil societies sometimes even against the experiences of their own citizens and how such efforts as well as backlash from actors below and beyond the state have led to horizontal and vertical memory fragmentation. Furthermore it considers the attempts by states representatives to reassert control of national memory discourses and the subsequent resistances they face. As such this volume will appeal to sociology and political science scholars interested in memory studies in post conflict societies.

A Bibliographical Guide to Twenty-four Modern Anglo-Welsh Writers John Harris, Edward John Davies, 1994. This is the most detailed guide in existence to a significant portion of the now extensive English language literature of Wales. Two dozen major writers who are generally associated with the Anglo Welsh literary renaissance are covered here. Some like Dylan Thomas are internationally known figures who have been the subject of bibliographies in these cases the treatment here is the most up to date and comprehensive yet published. Others less well known outside Wales are given full bibliographical treatment for the first time. The volume will therefore be indispensable to students and teachers of literature in English at all levels. The bibliography lists publications by and about each chosen writer. Primary sections record the writer's monographic output in all editions and translations as well as uncollected contributions to books periodicals and newspapers. Secondary lists include critical and biographical studies of each writer independent monographs sections of books periodical essays and academic theses. Two important sections preface the individual author bibliographies one covering anthologies of Anglo Welsh poetry and prose the other a range of general critical and background studies. In all this bibliography with close on 6 000 selectively annotated entries provides an indispensable reference guide to a developing area of literary and cultural research.
