Giving Space to African Voices Zehlia Babaci-Wilhite,2014-08-07 This book sets out to bring voices of the South to the debate on localization of education and makes the case that it should be considered a right in education Despite all the scientifically based evidence on the improved quality of education through the use of a local language and local knowledge English as a language of instruction and Western knowledge based curriculum continue to be used at all educational levels in many developing nations This means that in many African countries the goal of rights to education is becoming increasingly remote let alone that of rights in education With this understanding and with the awareness of the education challenges of millions of children throughout Africa the authors argue that local curriculum through local languages needs to be valued and to be preserved and that children need to be prepared for the world in a language that promotes understanding The authors make a clear case that policy makers are in a position to work towards a quality education for all as part of a more comprehensive right based approach We owe it to the children of the South to offer the best quality education possible in order to achieve social justice

Bible Interpretation and the African Culture David J. Ndegwah,2020-01-15 This book can be summarized in one sentence that culture plays a determinant role in the way people perceive interpret and therefore respond to reality around them ideas events people and literature including sacred literature Thus when people encounter new reality they perceive and conceptualize it in accordance with their worldview which is shaped by their culture that is modeled to suit various geographical locations In order to understand why people around the world behave and act as they do they choose certain words in what they say and do certain things rather than others it is important to understand and appreciate this fact Failure to do so would make it very difficult to engage in any dealings with them secular or religious like doing business or evangelization This is what happened to the Pokot people whose worldview is predominantly communitarian and yet they were introduced to hermeneutics that are predominantly individualistic which is at loggerheads with their communal aspirations The manifestation of this reality is the interpretation of the Good Shepherd parable in the Gospel of John which the Pokot have understood and contextualized in line with their worldview against the intentions goals and disposition of their evangelizers

The African Conundrum Mawere, Munyaradzi, Mubaya, Tapuwa R., 2017-05-22 The African conundrum is rooted out of the historical philosophical and cultural bastardisation imbalances and inequalities which many post colonial African governments have always sought to address though with varying degrees of success since the 1960s Lamentably this African conundrum is rarely examined in a systematic manner that takes into account the geopolitical milieu of the continent past and present This volume seeks to interrogate and examine the extent of the impact of the geopolitical seesaw which seems poised to tip in favour of the Global North The book grapples with the question on how Africa can wake up from its cavernous intellectual slumber to break away from both material and psychological dependency and achieve a transformative political and socio economic self reinvention and self assertion While the African conundrum is largely a result of historic oppression and a resilient colonial legacy this book urges Africans to rethink their condition in a manner that makes Africa responsible and accountable for its own destiny The book argues that it is through this rethinking that Africa can successfully transcend the logic of post imperial dependency

Writing Across Cultures Omar Sougou, 2021-10-25 This is a timely and comprehensive study combining various critical approaches to the fiction of Buchi Emecheta one of Africa s most illustrious and contentious women writers Feminist Showalter Cixous Kristeva and postcolonial approaches writing back are taken to Emecheta s texts to illuminate the personal political and aesthetic ramifications of the production of this born writer Poststructural programmes of analysis are shown to be less relevant to this writer s fiction than Marxist and Bakhtinian perspectives Emecheta is shown to be a bridge builder between two cultures and two worlds in narratives both challenging and popular characterized by ambiguity ambivalence and double voiced discourse all of which evince the writer s determination to expose imaginatively the colonial heritage of centre periphery conflicts cultural corruption ethnic discrimination gender oppression and the migrant experience in multiracial communities

Colonial Intervention and Destabilization of African Identities Obed Mfum-Mensah, 2025-02-01 External forces and African elites impose trusteeship practices on Africans to construct and consolidate hierarchical power relations in African societies that infantilize Africans They employ trusteeship and organized infantilism as two pronged colonial intervention tools to keep the masses of Africans in subordinated positions by accepting and internalizing those practices as part of the normal order of things This book takes an interdisciplinary approach for examining these different forms of power relations that exploit and dispossess African societies of their resources to accumulate their own wealth
