R. Brant,2018-11-01 After a recent CUFA conference many social studies teacher educators came to realize that pre service teachers are skeptical of calls to integrate sensitive topics in the curriculum because they do not see it in their field experiences The purpose of this edited book is to share examples of Pre K 12 grade teachers schools or school systems that infuse race class gender and sexuality in the curriculum This book offers concrete examples of social studies teachers schools and schools systems committed to the inclusion of topics often deemed as sensitive or controversial Care was taken to provide examples from diverse geographic areas school types public charter private etc and grade levels Researchers teamed with practicing professionals to highlight teachers and schools that successfully integrate race class gender and or sexuality in the curriculum The chapters provide specific examples of content inclusion share high leverage practices and provide advice for others infusing race class gender and sexuality in the curriculum Teaching World History: A Resource Book Heidi Roupp,2015-03-04 A resource book for teachers of world history at all levels The text contains individual sections on art gender religion philosophy literature trade and technology Lesson plans reading and multi media recommendations and suggestions for classroom activities are also provided Asian/American Curricular Epistemicide Nicholas D. Hartlep,Daniel P. Scott,2016-08-18 In this important book Nicholas Hartlep and Daniel Scott's detailed analyses on both visual and historical representations of Asian Americans in textbooks and teacher manuals used in our elementary and secondary schools poignantly tell us that generations of children are growing up being fed this single story about Asian Americans As Hartlep and Scott write Asian Americans have once again been constructed as the good minority that can succeed on their own and be used as a political instrument to shame the Blacks for their underachievement and their fight for equality Over and over again the media has been telling a single story about Asian Americans to the public for the past fifty years The consequence of this fabricated story is that it discourages others even Asian Americans themselves from believing in the validity of their struggles Linshi 2014 p 1
