The Jailhouse Lawyer Calvin Duncan,Sophie Cull,2025-07-08 Duncan s story is so incredible it strains belief It is so heartwarming and hopeful that it will stay with you for a long time John Grisham This brilliantly told story at once maddening and miraculous is among the most powerful indictments of our criminal justice system I ve ever read James Forman Jr A searing and ultimately hopeful account of Calvin Duncan the most extraordinary jailhouse lawyer of our time Sister Helen Prejean and his thirty year path through Angola after a wrongful murder conviction his coming of age as a legal mind while imprisoned and his continued advocacy for those on the inside Calvin Duncan was nineteen when he was incarcerated for a 1981 New Orleans murder he didn't commit. The victim of a wildly incompetent public defense system and a badly compromised witness, Duncan was left to rot in the waking nightmare of confinement. Armed with little education, he took matters into his own hands. At twenty-one, he filed his first motion from prison: Motion for a Law Book, which launched his highly successful self-taught legal career. Trapped within this wholly corrupted system, Duncan became a legal advocate for himself and his fellow prisoners as an inmate counsel at the infamous Louisiana State Penitentiary, Angola. Literature sustained his hope as he learned the law in its shadow. During his decades of incarceration, Duncan helped hundreds of other prisoners navigate their cases, advocating for those the state had long since written off. He taught a class in the midst of Angola to empower other incarcerated men to fight for their own justice under the law. But his own case remained stalled. A defense lawyer once responded to Duncan's request for documents: "You are not a person." Criminal justice reform advocate Sophie Cull met Duncan after he was finally released from prison; he began to tell her his story. Together, they've written a bracing condemnation of the criminal legal system and an intimate portrait of a heroic and brilliant man's resilience in the face of injustice.

Race Hate Anne Rooney, 2010. Race Hate takes a broad-minded look at prejudices that not only affect our lives today but have also been in place for many hundreds of years. The Angola Prison Seminary Michael Hallett, Joshua Hays, Byron R. Johnson, Sung Joon Jang, Grant Duwe, 2016-08-05. Corrections officials faced with rising populations and shrinking budgets have increasingly welcomed faith-based providers offering services at no cost to help meet the needs of inmates. Drawing from three years of on-site research, this book utilizes survey analysis along with life history interviews of inmates and staff to explore the history, purpose, and functioning of the Inmate Minister program at Louisiana State Penitentiary, aka Angola, America's largest maximum security prison. This book takes seriously attributions from inmates that faith is helpful for surviving prison and explores the implications of religious programming for an American corrections system in crisis, featuring high recidivism, dehumanizing violence, and often draconian punishments. A first of its kind prototype in a quickly expanding policy arena, Angola's unique Inmate Minister program deploys trained graduates of the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary in bivocational pastoral service roles throughout the prison. Inmates lead their own congregations and serve in lay ministry capacities in hospice, cell block visitation, delivery of familial death notifications to fellow inmates, sidewalk counseling, and tier ministry, officiating inmate funerals and delivering care packages to indigent prisoners. Life history interviews uncover deep level change in self-identity corresponding with a growing body of research on identity change and religiously motivated desistance. The concluding chapter addresses concerns regarding the First Amendment, the dysfunctional state of U.S. corrections, and directions for future research.
