The April Sonnets:

The April Sonnets Marie Abate, 2014-11-12 Marie Abate has written some cracking fine poems here they are deeply intimate yet without any of the personal rhetoric trapped by the first person voice The reader is Dionysus the heroine is nature Where does nature go to live its poems It goes into sex and rage and quiet places of restoring itself in the forest Barrett Warner Associate Editor Free State Review Marie Abate's debut poetry collection The April Sonnets is a raw emotionally rich book of poems that tells the story of April's descent into addiction mental illness and loneliness Yet in one of my favorite poems of the collection April Is Not Anna Karenina Abate writes this stunning line She will grow flowers in the spring she will find her wings In the juxtaposition of natural landscape to April's stark reality the reader will find sadness beauty and in the end hope Kelly Ann Jacobson Author Cairo in White April Sonnets 2019 Don Brandis, 2019-04-04 This series of sonnets about April as a recurring season of renewal is intended to be read not as stand alone poems but as a collective Each season has different meanings for us at different ages and in a sense all four are present to us at all times

The Measure, 1921 April Twilights and Other Poems Willa Cather, 2013-03-26 Before Willa Cather went on to write the novels that would make her famous she was known as a poet the most popular of her poems reprinted many times in national magazines and anthologies Her first book of poetry April Twilights was published in 1903 but Cather significantly revised and expanded it in a 1923 edition entitled April Twilights and Other Poems This Everyman's Library edition reproduces for the first time all the poems from both versions of April Twilights along with a number of uncollected and previously unpublished poems by Cather as well as an illuminating selection of her newly released letters In such lyrical poems as The Hawthorn Tree Winter at Delphi Prairie Spring Poor Marty and Going Home Cather exhibits both a finely tuned sensitivity to the beauties of the physical world and a richly symbolic use of the landscapes of myth The themes that were to animate her later masterpieces found their first expression in these haunting elegiac ballads and sonnets Twenty Poems to Pray Gary M. Bouchard, 2019-09-06 2020 Catholic Press Association honorable mention award poetry Drawing from the poetry of generations of esteemed writers Gary Bouchard shows how poems often express the longings of the human heart as a kind of prayer Emily Dickinson Rev Rowan Williams Pope John Paul II Christina Rossetti Robert Frost and Fr Kilian McDonnell OSB among others offer readers an inspiring path to reflect upon and pray with poetic verse Arranged under six
