Style and Seduction Elana Shapira, 2016-05-22 A recent surge of interest in Jewish patronage during the golden years of Vienna has led to the question Would modernism in Vienna have developed in the same fashion had Jewish patrons not been involved This book uniquely treats Jewish identification within Viennese modernism as a matter of Jews' active fashioning of a new language to convey their aims of emancipation along with their claims of cultural authority In this provocative reexamination of the roots of Viennese modernism Elana Shapira analyzes the central role of Jewish businessmen professionals and writers in the evolution of the city's architecture and design from the 1860s to the 1910s According to Shapira these patrons negotiated their relationship with their non-Jewish surroundings and clarified their position within Viennese society by inscribing Jewish elements into the buildings interiors furniture and design objects that they financed produced and co-designed In the first book to investigate the cultural contributions of the banker Eduard Todesco the steel tycoon Karl Wittgenstein the textile industrialist Fritz Waerndorfer the author Peter Altenberg the tailor Leopold Goldman and many others Shapira reconsiders theories identifying the crisis of Jewish assimilation as a primary creative stimulus for the Jewish contribution to Viennese modernism Instead she argues that creative tensions between Jews and non-Jews patrons and designers who cooperated and arranged well choreographed social encounters with one another offer more convincing explanations for the formation of a new semantics of modern Viennese architecture and design than do theories based on assimilation This thoroughly researched and richly illustrated book will interest scholars and students of Jewish studies Vienna and Viennese culture and modernism

The Art of Symbolic Resistance Joanne N. Smith Finley, 2013-09-12 Against the background of the r mchi riots July 2009 this book provides a longitudinal study of contemporary Uyghur identities and Uyghur Han relations Previous studies considered China s Uyghurs from the perspective of the majority Han state or people Conversely The Art of Symbolic Resistance considers Uyghur identities from a local perspective based on interviews conducted with group members over nearly twenty years Smith Finley rejects assertions that the Uyghur ethnic group is a creation of the Chinese state suggesting that contemporary Uyghur identities involve a complex interplay between long standing intra group socio cultural commonalities and a more recently evolved sense of common enmity towards the Han This book advances the discipline in three senses from a focus on sporadic violent opposition to one on everyday symbolic resistance from state to local representations and from a conceptualisation of Uyghurs as victim to one of creative agent
