The rise of on-demand internet-based video has transformed the way films are distributed and exhibited with many previously unobtainable and obscure films becoming available for global audiences to view instantly. Interweaving historical and current theoretical approaches Nick Lacey presents a tightly focused and coherent overview of a discipline in transition which can be read cover to cover or in distinct chapters. With its original narrative line and student-oriented philosophy the text greatly enriches student's appreciation of cinema while equipping them with the essential skills and vocabulary to succeed in film studies. This is an ideal foundational text for all lecturers undergraduate or A-level students of film and cinema studies as well as enthusiasts of film and cinema looking for a comprehensive guide. New to this Edition: Content reflecting the increasing importance of production contexts in chapters focusing exclusively on the film business; distribution and exhibition. A more detailed chapter on representation and greater emphasis on audience. Updated content addressing the significance of transnational cinema drawing on a more global non-Hollywood range of film examples and case studies from Europe Asia and Latin America. Text is broken up by a wider variety of film stills representing world cinema from the classics to the latest in contemporary cinema. Research in Education ,1974 Cincinnati Magazine ,1986-01 Cincinnati Magazine taps into the DNA of the city exploring shopping dining living and culture and giving readers a ringside seat on the issues shaping the region. Independent Offices Appropriations for 1965 United States. Crossing California Adam Langer, 2005-05-03 Crossing California is a cinematic and unforgettable look at the end of an era the turning point when the idealism of the sixties gave way to the pragmatism of the eighties California Avenue in Chicago s West Rogers Park neighborhood separates the upper middle class Jewish families on the west from the mostly middle class Jewish households east of the divide This funny and heartbreaking novel which spans the Iran hostage crisis through the inauguration of Ronald Reagan as president tells the story of three families and their teenage children living on either side of California It follows their loves heartaches friendships and losses during a memorable and defining moment of American history

Game Changers Art Chansky, 2016-09-12 Among many legendary episodes from the life and career of men s basketball coach Dean Smith few loom as large as his recruitment of Charlie Scott the first African American scholarship athlete at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Drawn together by college basketball in a time of momentous change Smith and Scott helped transform a university a community and the racial landscape of sports in the South But there is much more to this story than is commonly told In Game Changers Art Chansky reveals an intense saga of race college sport and small town politics At the center were two young men Scott and Smith both destined for greatness but struggling through challenges on and off the court among them the storms of civil rights protest and the painfully slow integration of a Chapel Hill far less progressive than its reputation today might suggest Drawing on extensive personal interviews and a variety of other sources Chansky takes readers beyond the basketball court to highlight the community that supported Smith and Scott during these demanding years from assistant basketball coach John Lotz and influential pastor the Reverend Robert Seymour to pioneering African American mayor Howard Lee. Dispelling many myths that surround this period Chansky nevertheless offers an ultimately triumphant portrait of a student athlete and coach who ensured the University of North Carolina would never be the same. Film Review Digest, 1962 Secret Identities Parry Shen, Keith Chow, Jerry Ma, 2009 Appealing to both comics fans and Asian Americans seeking to claim their place in American culture Secret Identities makes brilliant use of the conventions of the superhero comic book to expose the real face of the Asian American experience. This groundbreaking graphic anthology brings together leading Asian American creators in the comics industry including Gene Yang National Book Award finalist for American Born Chinese Bernard Chang Wonder Woman Greg Pak The Hulk and Christine Norrie Black Canary Wedding Special to craft original graphical short stories set in a compelling shadow history of our country from the building of the railroads to the Japanese American internment the Vietnam airlift the murder of Vincent Chin and the incarceration of Dr. Wen Ho Lee. Entertaining and enlightening Secret Identities offers whiz bang action searing satire and thoughtful commentary from a community too often overlooked by the cultural mainstream while showcasing a vivid cross section of the talents whose imagination and creativity is driving the contemporary comics renaissance. The Praeger Handbook of Media Literacy Art Silverblatt, 2013-11-26 This groundbreaking two volume set provides readers with the information they need to grasp new developments in the swiftly evolving field of media literacy. The United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization UNESCO proclaimed media literacy a fundamental human right.
