The Awakening Stylist:

Empire of Salons Helen Pfeifer, 2024-09-24 A history of the Ottoman incorporation of Arab lands that shows how gentlemanly salons shaped culture society and governance Historians have typically linked Ottoman imperial cohesion in the sixteenth century to the bureaucracy or the sultan's court In Empire of Salons Helen Pfeifer points instead to a critical but overlooked factor gentlemanly salons Pfeifer demonstrates that salons exclusive assemblies in which elite men displayed their knowledge and status contributed as much as any formal institution to the empire's political stability These key laboratories of Ottoman culture society and politics helped men to build relationships and exchange ideas across the far flung Ottoman lands Pfeifer shows that salons played a central role in Syria and Egypt's integration into the empire after the conquest of 1516-17 Pfeifer anchors her narrative in the life and network of the star scholar of sixteenth century Damascus Badr al Din al Ghazzi d 1577 and she reveals that Arab elites were more influential within the empire than previously recognized Their local knowledge and scholarly expertise competed with and occasionally even outshone that of the most powerful officials from Istanbul Ultimately Ottoman culture of the era was forged collaboratively by Arab and Turkophone actors alike Drawing on a range of Arabic and Ottoman Turkish sources Empire of Salons illustrates the extent to which magnificent gatherings of Ottoman gentlemen contributed to the culture and governance of empire

American Salons Robert M. Crunden, 1993-01-28 In American Salons Robert Crunden provides a sweeping account of the American encounter with European Modernism up to the American entry into World War I Crunden begins with deft portraits of the figures who were central to the birth of Modernism including James Whistler the eccentric expatriate American painter who became the archetypal artist in his dress and behavior and Henry and William James who broke new ground in the genre of the novel and in psychology influencing an international audience in a broad range of fields At the heart of the book are the American salons the intimate personal gatherings of artists and intellectuals where Modernism flourished In Chicago Floyd Dell and Margery Currey spread new ideas to Sherwood Anderson Theodore Dreiser and others In London Ezra Pound could be found behind everything from the cigars of W B Yeats to the prose of Ford Madox Hueffer In Paris the salons of Leo and Gertrude Stein and Michael and Sarah Stein gave Picasso and Matisse their first secure audiences and incomes meanwhile Gertrude Stein produced a new writing style that had an incalculable impact on the generation of Ernest Hemingway Most important of all were the salons of New York City Alfred Stieglitz pioneered new forms of photography at the famous 291 Gallery Mabel Dodge brought together modernist playwrights and painters introducing them to political reformers and radicals At the salon of Walter and Louise Arensberg Marcel Duchamp and Francis Picabia rubbed shoulders with Wallace Stevens Man Ray and William Carlos Williams By 1917 no art in America remained untouched by these new institutions From the journalism of H L Mencken to the famous 1913 Armory Show in New York Crunden illuminates this pivotal era offering perceptive insights and evocative

Ali, 2010-11-15 Arabic literary salons emerged in ninth century Iraq and by the tenth were flourishing in Baghdad and other urban centers In an age before broadcast media and classroom education salons were the primary source of entertainment and escape for middle and upper rank members of society serving also as a space and means for educating the young Although salons relied on a culture of oral performance from memory scholars of Arabic literature have focused almost exclusively on the written dimensions of the tradition That emphasis argues Samer Ali has neglected the interplay of oral and written as well as of religious and secular knowledge in salon society and the surprising ways in which these seemingly discrete categories blurred in the lived experience of participants Looking at the period from 500 to 1250 and using methods from European medieval studies folklore and cultural anthropology Ali interprets Arabic manuscripts in order to answer fundamental questions about literary salons as a social institution He identifies salons not only as sites for socializing and educating but as loci for performing literature and oral history for creating and transmitting cultural identity and for continually reinterpreting the past A fascinating recovery of a key element of humanistic culture Ali's work will encourage a recasting of our understanding of verbal art cultural memory and daily life in medieval Arab culture
