about her chosen art acquired over a lifetime as an acclaimed writer and teacher of writing From technical advice check that your verbs aren't burdened by unnecessary heds and woulds to setting the bar I expect the fiction I read to carry with it the conviction that it is written with no other incentive than that it must be written from the demands of readers they'd been given a story with a baby in it and they damn well wanted that baby accounted for to the foibles of public life I've never subscribed to the notion that a film adaptation is the final imprimatur for a work of fiction despite how often I've been told by encouraging friends and strangers Maybe they'll make a movie of your novel as if I'd been aiming for a screenplay all along but somehow missed the mark and wrote a novel by mistake McDermott muses trenchantly and delightfully about the craft of fiction She also serves throughout as the artful conductor of a literary chorus quoting generously from the work of other great writers including Tolstoy Shakespeare Nabokov Morrison and Woolf beautifully joining her voice with theirs These stories of lessons learned and books read and of the terrors and the joys of what she calls this mad pursuit form a rich and valuable sourcebook for readers and writers alike a deeply charming meditation on the unique gift that is literature
