Theorising Performance Bloomsbury Publishing, 2013-10-16 This exciting collection constitutes the first analysis of the modern performance of ancient Greek drama from a theoretical perspective The last three decades have seen a remarkable revival of the performance of ancient Greek drama some ancient plays Sophocles Oedipus Euripides and Medea have established a distinguished place in the international performance repertoire and attracted eminent directors including Peter Stein Ariane Mnouchkine Peter Sellars and Katie Mitchell Staging texts first written two and a half thousand years ago for all male ritualised outdoor performance in masks in front of a pagan audience raises quite different intellectual questions from staging any other canonical drama including Shakespeare But the discussion of this development in modern performance has until now received scant theoretical analysis This book provides the solution in the form of a lively interdisciplinary dialogue inspired by a conference held at the Archive of Performances of Greek Roman Drama APGRD in Oxford between sixteen experts in Classics Drama Music Cultural History and the world of professional theatre The book will be of great interest to scholars and students of Classics and Drama alike

Introductions and Translations to the Plays of Sophocles and Euripides Harry Love, 2009-03-26 The two volumes of essays and translations of the tragedies of Sophocles and Euripides are the accumulation of some twelve years of producing ancient plays for contemporary audiences and actors The play texts themselves therefore are intended to be accessible and speakable in the first instance and to convey as much of the flavour of the original Greek as any translation is able They are there to be used The style though personal to a degree is an attempt to maintain the tone and the poetry of tragedy without dropping into the mock archaic or turning the texts into self conscious homilies on contemporary issues The introductory essays are occasional pieces written with production in mind Two general themes have emerged firstly a development of ideas about the nature of the dramatic genre and dramatic writing and stage rhetoric how is irony achieved What kinds of irony are there How do we understand emotional experience in a theatre Secondly the significance of emotions and the concept of tragedy in the Greek context Sophocles and Euripides share as one might expect a milieu and some rigid theatrical conventions but within this context they reveal significant differences in terms of dramatic style and audience orientation The translations and essays are not presented in the order that they were written Volume I follows the narrative order of Sophocles Theban Trilogy and Volume II the chronological order of Euripides composition The plays were all produced in Dunedin New Zealand in the following order Oedipus the King 1994 and 2003 Hippolytus 1995 Bacchae 1997 Antigone 1998 Oedipus at Colonus 2000 Medea 2002 Hecuba 2006 New Light on Tony Harrison Edith Hall, 2019-01-03 New Light on Tony Harrison explores the lifetime achievement and influence of one of Britain's greatest living poets Tony Harrison It explores his extensive body of poems and his profound contribution to the literary world
