Global Business in the Age of Destruction and Distraction Mahesh Joshi,Gaurav Rastogi,J. R. Klein,2022-06-30 When a crisis like a pandemic sweeps through societies it upends critical structures in health economics socioeconomics institutional cultures communities and everyday life This book examines how a world already stressed by rampant change reacts to a global crisis It draws on experts that foresee a growing economic inequality as the tech savvy pull further ahead of those with less access to digital tools training or aptitude Some anticipate big technology firms that will exploit their market advantages and weaponize tools that erode the privacy and autonomy of their users Some predict that changes exacerbated by the pandemic will result in significant portions of the population benefiting from reforms aimed at racial justice and social equity as critiques of current economic arrangements and capitalism itself gain support and policymaker attention The authors examine the complexities and realities of a world filled with distraction and how focus is diverted during a time of primary technological revolution These patterns are destroying old thinking models and establishing new paradigms This conversation takes time to investigate voice tools and strategies for coping and remaining relevant in the middle of the whirlwind

Diversity drives better business results however despite decades of effort women make up only 15% of engineers Retaining Women in Engineering The Empowerment of Lean Development approaches the problem of women leaving engineering from a systems level perspective to change the way engineering is done and level the playing field between men and women This book utilizes the six principles of Lean Development and draws from the learnings of the field of medicine recognizing that access to a vast amount of written knowledge is an important part of a physician's learning process Using these principles the book provides leaders with concrete strategies and methods to change the way engineering is done and learning occurs Integrated within the book are gray box stories which describe two different worlds that engineers work in that of traditional development and that of Lean Development These stories underscore the way that the gender confidence gap bias and stereotypes affect a female engineer's career Additionally the book highlights how the methods of Lean Development strengthen an individual's ability to control their learning and career and a leader's ability to coach others more effectively Ultimately this results in more capable teams Furthermore not unlike the marine chronometer a clock which solved the centuries old challenge of establishing the longitudinal location for a ship at sea this book finds the clock that levels the playing field between men and women This book will help leaders at every level within an engineering firm as well as women engineers and managers who want to grow to their full potential and others who care about gender equity
