Zscheile, Blair A Pogue, 2025-06-03 A guide to the diverse forms of Christian community that are needed today Throughout its history the church thrived when it embraced diverse organizational and cultural forms In this volume Dwight Zscheile and Blair Pogue argue that as American culture shifts away from voluntary association and toward individual self expression most existing congregations are bound to inherited forms of church that are not designed to connect with neighbors or form disciples Taking the Church of England s efforts over two decades to engage its deeply changed missionary context as an example the authors build on historical and contemporary precedent to argue that the renewal of the church requires a new paradigm where inherited and innovative forms of church coexist and thrive together Examining numerous innovations including fresh expressions of church megachurches microchurches church plants digital churches and more the authors show how a mixed ecology is central to Tempered Resilience Tod Bolsinger, 2020-11-10 What type of leadership is needed in a moment that demands adaptive change Exploring the qualities of adaptive leadership within churches and nonprofit organizations Tod Bolsinger deftly examines both the external challenges we face and the internal resistance that holds us back showing how leaders can become both stronger and more flexible The Light Shines Through Carole A. Wageman, 2017-03-01 The treasure trove of stories from Scripture provides wonderful examples of people encountering the mystery of God. We read these stories over and over and know how they turn out year after year. The one perspective we might miss however is that the characters in Scripture never knew how their story would turn out when they were living the unknown fear joy surprise and drama of the moment. They faced the same uncertainty worry distraction and wonder that we face in light of life events that leave us breathless for hope and help. We often fail to grasp how divine participation in the human story is actually what God's story is all about. Our stories are God's story. Personal narratives then and now seem to be the ways in which God works best as Scripture is transformed from static story to a conversation that informs our own modern dilemmas and uncertainties. Today's reader can engage with ancient and familiar tales through the lens of pondering where God might be at work in our own lives as well. As today's Church is in an unsettling transition today's spiritual seekers and those who have grown disenfranchised from or disillusioned with traditional spiritual approaches will find a fresh perspective that opens their own story to the overwhelming constancy of God's grace and love.

The Last Pastor Gail Cafferata, 2020-01-18 Gail Cafferata was heartbroken when the church she pastored voted to close its doors. It may have been the right decision but it led to a million questions in her mind about her call leadership and future. She began to think that other pastors who close churches perhaps go through this same experience. This led her to conduct a sociological study of over 130 pastors in five historically established denominations Episcopal Lutheran United Methodist Presbyterian and United Church of Christ who were called to serve churches that closed. This book tells the results of that study which consisted of many interviews and the hard won lessons learned by these courageous pastors.

Leading thinkers in pastoral theology homiletics liturgical theology and missiology consider how to recognize the divine presence and join in what God is already doing in all areas of church ministry. With deep theological reflection personal stories and practical suggestions this is a compelling interdisciplinary conversation.

GPS: Finding Direction on Your Faith and Life Journey John Strommen, 2024-07-31 What's the point of it all. In the postmodern world the meaning and direction of human existence is increasingly a question mark with few satisfying answers forthcoming. People of faith are not immune to such questions as they struggle to meaningfully connect their faith to their daily lives. In GPS Finding Direction on Your Faith and Life Journey Strommen makes the case that much of this existential struggle is born of an anthropocentric worldview that has banished God to the margins leaving humans with the futile task of playing God as they attempt to create their own meaning purpose and identity. Drawing on core Christian understandings through a Lutheran lens the author asserts that life giving meaning and purpose are gifts given by God alone who frees people from their self justifying ways to take an inventory of their many gifts and participate in a new creation where love of neighbor is the social currency It is the core theme of this book that God is in fact present deeply invested and at work in the everyday world calling everyone daily to partner with God to co create a more trustworthy loving and hopeful world Biblical Cross-Cultural Leadership Suzana Dobrić Veiss,Elizabeth K. Hunt,Joshua D. Henson,2024-07-01 This volume centers on leadership through the lenses of cross cultural dynamics and Biblical principles Each chapter examines a distinct instance from a New Testament text offering diverse Biblical applications The text places an emphasis on understanding cultural awareness and cultural sensitivity offering insights on integrating Biblical values into leadership approaches Addressing a void in demonstrating the alignment of cross cultural leadership with Biblical principles this work makes a valuable contribution to the realms of cross cultural studies and organizational leadership
