Architectural Aesthetics Edward Winters, 2023-05-18 The fine arts are traditionally seen to have intrinsic value that is they are valuable in themselves But this poses a problem for architecture its works are designed to serve our purposes and therefore it is classed as functional Carving out a new space Edward Winters argues why architecture is a fine art and finds a place for the fine art of architecture in the cultural environment in which we structure our lives Winters reconciles intrinsic value as a fine art with extrinsic value as shelter security and comfort without collapsing into the modernist conception of Functionalism He draws on the Apollonian and the Dionysian to resolve the apparent conflict between the two values the former requiring contemplative detached reflection the latter an engaged embodied entanglement with the festive mood inspired by the immediate situation Architecture Winters claims is to be regarded as functional but this functionality is subsumed under the intrinsic aesthetic value of living well Introducing the main positions in the philosophy of architecture through the lens of the timeless argument about what constitutes art Winters lays out a humanistic view of the medium and extends our understanding of aesthetics and the everyday

Art and Belief Ema Sullivan-Bissett, Helen Bradley, Paul Noordhof, 2017-10-20 Art and Belief presents twelve new essays at the intersection of philosophy of mind and philosophy of art particularly to do with the relation between belief and truth in our experience of art Several contributors discuss the cognitive contributions artworks can make and the questions surrounding these Can authors of fiction testify to their readers If they can are they culpable for the false beliefs of their readers formed in response to their work If they cannot that is if the testimonial powers of authors of fiction are limited is there some non testimonial epistemic role that fiction can play And in any case is such a role relevant when determining the value of the work Also explored are issues concerned with the phenomenon of fictional persuasion specifically what is the nature of the attitude involved in such cases those in which we form beliefs about the real world in response to reading fiction If these attitudes are typically unstable unjustified and unreliable does this put pressure on the view that they are beliefs If these attitudes are beliefs does this put pressure on the view that all beliefs are aimed at truth The final pair of papers in the volume take different stances on the nature of aesthetic testimony and whether testimony of this kind is a legitimate source of beliefs about aesthetic properties and value The Art of Organ Building, Vol. 2 George Ashdown Audsley, 2013-08-08 Volume 2 of this set includes an outline of organ history external design and decoration internal arrangement and mechanical systems acoustics more Complete with illustrations tables and specifications Set includes 385 figures and 15 plates Small Business Sourcebook ,2005 A guide to the information services and sources provided to 100 types of small business by associations consultants educational programs franchisers government agencies reference works statisticians suppliers trade shows and venture capital firms The Art of Administration Kenneth Eugene Eble, 1978 Balance of Power T.V.
