Rethinking School Spaces for Transgender, Non-binary, and Gender Diverse Youth Jennifer Ingrey, 2023-06-21 Positing the washroom as an onto epistemological site which exemplifies the way in which school spaces govern how gender is experienced normalized and understood by youth this text illustrates how current school policies and practices around bathrooms fail to dismantle cisnormativity and recognize trans lives Drawing on media policy analysis empirical study and arts based methodologies it demonstrates how school spaces must be re thought via a trans centred epistemology to be reflected in teacher education policy and curricula Beginning with a review of the theoretical constellation of the heterotopia and critical trans ing informing the analysis of data it moves to offer a critical media and policy analysis of how trans and gender diverse students are de limited erased or harmed This position is supported by analysis of empirical data from a school bathroom project including student photographs of washrooms and other visual expressions of gender diverse and gender complex individuals These elements the media policy analysis the empirical study and the archival online material ultimately combine to offer new justifications for critical trans informed policies and practices in education that recognize and centre trans and gender diverse knowledges expressions and experiences Centring the specific and nuanced debates around trans phenomena via an innovative methodology it makes a unique and extremely timely contribution to the debate on gender inclusive bathrooms as well as trans rights to self identification As such it will appeal to scholars postgraduates educators and faculty working in the area of gender and sexuality in education with interests in trans phenomena HCA Comics and Original Comic Art Auction Catalog #829 Jim Steele,2008-06 Sex in

Public Lauren Rosewarne,2009-03-26 Despite decades of feminist awareness and activism women continue to be portrayed in outdoor advertising in a limited and sexist manner The fact that in public space audiences are exposed to such images without choice renders the issue an important public policy concern Sex in Public utilises a large outdoor advertising data collection to examine the contemporary outdoor advertising landscape documenting the routine portrayal of women as thin white young and idle This book examines why such portrayals are concerning for feminists as well as for public policy and explores the advertising self regulation systems that facilitate the display of such images This book criticises sexist outdoor advertising as a form of sexual harassment given that imagery often bearing very strong semblance to pin ups which would be outlawed in a workplace are readily displayed in public space reflecting a troublesome public policy double standard Understanding sexist outdoor advertising as a form of sexual harassment is a new framework that Sex in Public offers to understand critique and condemn such images Heritage Signature Auction #811 Ivy Press, Heritag Auctions Illustration Art Auction Catalog #7010, Dallas, TX Jim Steele,2009-06
