Opening the Gates Donald Reid,2018-06-12 How the occupation of a watch factory became one of the iconic labor struggles after May 1968 In 1973 faced with massive layoffs workers at the legendary Lip watch firm in Besan on France occupied their factory to demand that no one lose their job They seized watches and watch parts assembled and sold watches and paid their own salaries Their actions recaptured the ideals of May 1968 when 11 million workers had gone on strike to demand greater autonomy and to overturn the status quo Educated by 68 the men and women at the Besan on factory formed committees to control every aspect of what became a national struggle Female employees developed a working class feminism combating workplace sexual harassment and male control of the union The endurance of the Lip movement and its appeal through the 1970s came from its rich democratic participatory culture The factory workers welcomed supporters and engaged with them an expression of solidarity between blue collar and student activists that built on the legacy of 1968 Opening the Gates The Lip Affair 1968 1981 is the first account of all facets of the experience drawing extensively on unpublished materials to reconstruct the vision and practice of those involved The Lip workers struggle was the last widespread expression in France of the belief that creativity and moral autonomy are the driving force of social transformation It brought about what Sartre called the extension of the field of possibilities not just for workers but for all those who gave the movement support and meaning

Extraordinary Rendition Elspeth Guild, Didier Bigo, Mark Gibney, 2018-04-17 The US led programme of extraordinary rendition created profound challenges for the international system of human rights protection and rule of law This book examines the efforts of authorities in Europe and the US to re establish rule of law and respect for human rights through the investigation of the program and its outcomes The contributions to this volume examine the supranational and national inquiries into the US CIA led extraordinary rendition and secret detention programme in Europe The book takes as a starting point two recent and far reaching developments in delivering accountability and establishing the truth First the publication of the executive summary of the US Senate Intelligence Committee Feinstein Report and second various European Court of Human Rights judgments regarding the complicity of several state parties and the incompatibility of those actions with the European Convention of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms ECHR The collective volume provides the first stock taking review of the state of affairs in the quest for accountability and identifies significant obstacles in going even further as international law demands It will be vital reading for students and scholars in a wide range of areas including international relations international law public policy and counter terrorism studies
