

Evan Cary

Acoustic Guitarist

Flamenco | Classical | Original

BIOGRAPHY

My name is Evan Cary. I was raised in a small rural town in New Hampshire that is part of what's known as the Upper Valley, a cluster of small towns and villages in both New Hampshire and Vermont that are divided by the Connecticut River. The city of Lebanon, like many small New England towns included in the "UV", contains a rich history deriving from its early colonial settlement and the presence of Dartmouth College. I spent 19 years there before leaving to attend Antioch College in Yellow Springs, Ohio.

My relationship with the guitar began in high school at the suggestion of my high school guidance counselor. I was lacking enough credits to graduate, and was feeling disillusioned with high school, my classes and American culture in general. In addition to the guitar class at school, I began studying with Classical guitarist Ed Eastridge. From the beginning, the guitar captivated and challenged me. In spite of my passion for the instrument, I attended Antioch College as a Creative Writing major minoring in Musical Composition, but found myself spending all my time when I wasn't in class playing the guitar. In 2005, a college friend invited me to come to visit Madrid Spain where I experienced Flamenco for the first time. I had never seen or heard the guitar played that way and I returned from the trip a changed man. I tried to teach myself how to play Flamenco guitar by studying YouTube videos and with other instructions I found online but came to the conclusion that if I wanted to gain any real skill I would need to go to the source. I left Antioch in my Sophomore year, moving to Madrid Spain in 2006 and my Flamenco guitar studies began when I started studying with world-renowned Flamenco guitar teacher Aquilino 'El Entri' Jimenez. From 2006 to 2009 I studied under El Entri at the Amor de Dios Flamenco academy, learning to accompany Flamenco song and dance as well as perform solo pieces for the guitar. I admired the work ethics of great guitarists like Paco de Lucia and would often practice six to ten hours a day trying to 'catch up'. When El Entri established his own Flamenco school, the Cañorroto Academia in the famed 'Cañorroto' neighborhood, I moved with him and continued to learn side by side with other up and coming Flamenco artists such as Joni Jimenez and El Kilino. In 2010 and 2011, I returned to New England to perform two summer concert tours, playing traditional Flamenco pieces along with my own original compositions.

Many of my fellow Flamenco students have gone on to have successful Flamenco guitar careers but after only studying for a couple of years I found myself becoming disillusioned with
