The Yellow "Handshake" Circle

DESCRIPTION

The Yellow Handshake Circle includes people whose names you know and who know your name too, but who you don't know much about. They are called acquaintances. Teachers, after school counselors, coaches and neighbors are usually acquaintances.

TOUCH

TALK

TRUST

The Yellow Handshake Circle includes people whose name is known and who know your name too. These people are called acquaintances. It limits touch to the hands upon greeting them.

The people who are acquaintances in the yellow circle limit their TOUCH to the hands; a handshake, a high five or fist bump are all acceptable. They limit their TALK to the situation they share, such as school, or they talk about current events, like a sports team's standing, a good movie or last night's TV shows. In essence small talk that does not reveal personal emotions or create controversy are safe areas of discussion with acquaintances. TRUST for acquaintances is also rather limited as these are people that you do not know well.
