The Classic British Telefantasy Guide Paul Cornell, Martin Day, Keith Topping, 2015-07-30 The Classic British Telefantasy Guide is derived from the second edition of The Guinness Book of Classic British TV with various corrections and a revised introduction to bring it up to date It was written when the Internet barely existed and at a time when few books had been published on the subject This is however by no means a new or completely revised version of the original material too much time has passed and if we were to start reworking and correcting the text now it would probably never be finished Instead

Action TV traces the development of the action series from its genesis in the 1950s. From The Saint to Knight Rider, contributors explore the key shows which defined the genre, addressing issues of audiences and consumption, gender and sexuality, fashion and popular culture. They examine the institutional and cultural factors influencing the action series and relate shifts in the genre to other forms of popular culture, including film, pop music, fashion and popular literature. Chapters include: Of leather suits and kinky boots: The Avengers style and popular culture; Who loves ya baby? Kojak, action and the great society; A lone crusader in a dangerous world: heroics of science and technology in Knight Rider; Angels in chains: feminism, femininity and consumer culture in Charlie's Angels; Who's the cat that won't cop out? Black masculinity in American action shows of the sixties and seventies.
