Directions: Read the main ideas for sections JCE and use Chapter 2 + Section 2 of the textbook to complete the statements with the words included in the column titled answers. Then use the Summary 2 to fill in the answers the questions in the space provided.

A. John Mear (English colonists) ideas about the role and shape of government influenced the growth of the colonies, the form that (institutions) and the system of government that have today.

1. English, Christianity, culture and ideas reflected from British lawmakers are important contributions to the founding principles and development of the United States.

2. The principle that a government's power is derived absolutely from the Magna Carta, which the English people have long regarded as a guarantee of English, government.

3. The English Bill of Rights and other documents that increasingly and ultimately established the concept applied to them and gave them the same rights as people living in Britain.

4. The English system of law, especially as organized by the British Parliament, was widely followed in the colonies.

5. British Parliament, with delegates representing the people, was a familiar example of representative government, but they criticized it.

6. Thomas Hobbes developed the Social, Contract, theory which suggested that people give up their individual sovereignty to the government in exchange for the government's maintenance of law and order.

7. John Locke believed that people have natural, rights, as human beings and a government that failed to protect them has lost its legitimacy.

8. James Madison called man, interests, ambitions, behind the basic rights and responsibilities beyond any people as a community; consequently created a social contract to protect their rights while creating local and government.

9. Charles-Louis de Montesquieu suggested separation, the powers of government.

10. John Mear said that the English colonies had the same government structure.
