The Art Of Short Fiction Brief Edition:

The Art of Short Fiction Gary Geddes, 1999-01 The book is intended for courses in introduction to literature or composition in English at university and college The new brief edition of The Art of Short Fiction is more than just a reduction of the successful bigger edition it is in many ways a significant departure in approach and coverage Professor Geddes has pared down the number of stories and has honed the international focus and centred the book more firmly on reading the short story There is still a broad selection of critical writing Writers on Writing and each piece of fiction is still prefaced by the very informative notes on the author all of which have been updated for this edition The Instructor's Manual available to adopters contains more discussion notes that will enrich each class The Art of the Short Fiction Film

Richard Raskin, 2015-10-06 This work is the first of its kind to single out individual short fiction films for comprehensive presentation and close study Two Men and a Wardrobe Roman Polanski Poland 1958 15 min Coffee and Cigarettes Jim Jarmusch USA 1986 6 min Sunday John Lawlor Ireland 1988 8 min Cat's Cradle Liz Hughes Australia 1991 12 min Eating Out Pal Sletaune Norway 1993 7 min Come Marianne Olsen Ulrichsen Norway 1995 4 5 min Wind Marcell Ivanyi Hungary 1996 6 min Possum Brad McGann New Zealand 1997 14 min and The War Is Over Nina Mimica Italy 1997 7 min are the nine short fiction films studied The films represent a broad range of storytelling approaches and a number of very different film cultures Each film has a chapter of its own including a shot by shot reproduction of the film with a still from every shot In most cases an interview with the director and an original screenplay and storyboard is also included The book also describes a new conceptual model derived from the films studied in the work which can be used both for analyzing the ways in which a short fiction film tells its story and as a set of guidelines for student filmmakers writing their own screenplays Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Katherine Mansfield and the Art of the Short Story

Gerri Kimber, 2014-12-22 This volume offers an introductory overview to the short stories of Katherine Mansfield discussing a wide range of her most famous stories from different viewpoints The book elaborates on Mansfield's themes and techniques thereby guiding the reader via close textual analysis to an understanding of the author's modernist techniques

Sex, Race, and Family in Contemporary American Short Stories M. Bostrom, 2007-08-06 This book reveals a female sexual economy in the marketplace of contemporary short fiction which locates a struggle for sexual power between mothers and daughters within a larger struggle to pursue that object of the American dream whiteness A Companion to the

American Short Story Alfred Bendixen, James Nagel, 2020-08-24 A COMPANION TO THE AMERICAN SHORT STORY A Companion to the American Short Story traces the development of this versatile literary genre over the past two centuries Written by leading critics in the field and edited by two major scholars it explores a wide range of writers from Edgar Allan Poe and Edith Wharton at the end of the nineteenth century to important modern writers such as Ernest Hemingway William Faulkner F Scott Fitzgerald and Richard Wright Contributions with a broader focus address groups of multiethnic Asian and

Jewish writers Each chapter places the short story into context focusing on the interaction of cultural forces and aesthetic principles The Companion takes account of cutting edge approaches to literary studies and contributes to the ongoing redefinition of the American canon embracing genres such as ghost and detective fiction cycles of interrelated short fiction and comic social and political stories The volume also reflects the diverse communities that have adopted this literary form and made it their own featuring entries on a variety of feminist and multicultural traditions This volume presents an important new consideration of the role of the short story in the literary history of American literature

The Geographies of African American Short Fiction Kenton Rambsy, 2022-03-25 Perhaps the brevity of short fiction accounts for the relatively scant attention devoted to it by scholars who have historically concentrated on longer prose narratives The Geographies of African American Short Fiction seeks to fill this gap by analyzing the ways African American short story writers plotted a diverse range of characters across multiple locations small towns a famous metropolis city sidewalks a rural wooded area apartment buildings a pond a general store a prison and more In the process these writers highlighted the extents to which places and spaces shaped or situated racial representations Presenting African American short story writers as cultural cartographers author Kenton Rambsy documents the variety of geographical references within their short stories to show how these authors make cultural spaces integral to their artwork and inscribe their stories with layered and resonant social histories The history of these short stories also documents the circulation of compositions across dozens of literary collections for nearly a century Anthology editors solidified the significance of a core group of short story authors including James Baldwin Toni Cade Bambara Charles Chesnutt Ralph Ellison Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Using quantitative information and an extensive literary dataset The Geographies of African American Short Fiction explores how editorial practices shaped the canon of African American short fiction

The Art & Craft of the Short Story Rick DeMarinis, 2016-10-04 The Art creative and believable characters how to begin and where to end and the generation of ideas as well as technical aspects such as point of view plot description and imagery and theme Examples from the work of a wide variety are used The author includes five of his own stories to demonstrate these topics

The Art of Brevity Per Winther, Jakob Lothe, Hans H. Skei, 2004 The Art of Brevity gathers fresh ideas about the theory and writing of short fiction from around the globe to produce an international inclusive exploration of the steadily growing field of short story studies Though Anglo American scholars have served as the primary developers of contemporary short story theory since the field's inception in the 1960s this volume adds the contributions of scholars living in other parts of the world Such Anglo American pioneers as Mary Rohrberger Charles May Susan Lohafer and John Gerlach join with short fiction scholars at universities in Norway Denmark Sweden and Canada to build academic bridges and expand the field geographically as well as conceptually Contributors to the volume weave together themes of time space compression mystery reader response and narrative closure They discuss writers as varied as Edgar Allan Poe Nathaniel Hawthorne Herman Melville Sarah Orne Jewett James Joyce

Franz Kafka Ernest Hemingway Mavis Gallant Flannery O Connor Eudora Welty Margaret Atwood Alice Munro and Robert Olen Butler the nineteenth century queer short story and contemporary Danish short shorts Steve Tomasula: The Art and Science of New Media Fiction David Banash,2015-05-21 Steve Tomasula s work exists at the cutting edges of scientific knowledge and literary techniques As such it demands consideration from multiple perspectives and from critics who can guide the reader through the formal innovations and multimedia involutions while providing critical scientific aesthetic historical and technical contexts This book the first of its kind provides this framework showing readers the richness and relevance of the worlds Tomasula constructs Steve Tomasula s work is redefining the form of the novel reinventing the practice of reading and wrestling with the most urgent questions raised by massive transformations of media and biotechnologies His work not only charts these changes it formulates the problems that we have making meaning in our radically changing technological contexts Vast in scope inventive in form and intimate in voice his novels short stories and essays are read and taught by a surprisingly diverse array of scholars in fields ranging from contemporary experimental writing and literary criticism to the history of science biotechnology and bioart book studies and digital humanities
