After the War David John Taylor, 1993 An English newspaper critic and novelist offers a panoramic account of modern fiction and asks why English novels seem so feeble compared to the giants of the Victorian age The answer lies in the world that produced the novels of Evelyn Waugh Kingsley Amis Margaret Drabble A S Byatt Ian McEwan Fay Weldon and many others from post war dreams to the recession of the 90s Distributed by Trafalgar Square Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR The Bookseller, 1977 The War in Eastern Europe John Reed, 1916 The author writes about his experience during World War I and the human beings he encountered in the countries of Eastern Europe from April to October 1915 The Songwriter Goes To War Alan Anderson, 2004-11 Limelight Irving Berlin marked the end of WWI with a show that opened on Broadway just before Armistice Day 1918 and ran for all of 32 performances Yip Yip Yaphank was notable for its company made up entirely of servicemen The idea of an all service show resurfaced in the wake of the U S entry into WWII and the cast of This Is the Army was rehearsing and preparing to open at New York's Broadway Theatre Their story is recalled here by Alan Anderson whose first assignment after induction into the service was to be production stage manager and first sergeant of the This Is the Army detachment From this vantage point Anderson enjoyed a unique perspective on the show on all the elements that went into it and on all the personalities that in one way or another brought the elements to life The Motion Picture Goes to War Larry Wayne Ward,1985 The nightingale. Domestic economic and ideological concerns during the Cold War drove many national leaders to promote U S international activism This study presents the domestic sources and goals underlying the creation of America s Cold War policies and the selling of those policies to the public Its examination of the Advertising Council illustrates how those activist international foreign policies reflected the domestic agenda of the Council s private supporters By cooperating with the Ad Council the American business community enlisted in the domestic propaganda programs of the wartime and early postwar years in an attempt to defeat the continued threats they perceived from the New Deal This emerges as a central goal and consequence of advertising s promotion of President Truman s Cold War policies The Advertising Council s representation of the moderate businessmen of the early postwar years casts a sharp light on the continuing accommodations made with the expansion of governmental power after the war and the shifting cooperation between the moderate and conservative wings of business to reshape that federal power The Council s private propaganda programs presented in commercial and public service advertising related most American problems such as race relations labor relations conservation and even safe driving among others to an asserted total foreign threat That propaganda hoped to convince Americans that their security prosperity and freedom all required shaping the world in a way that protected the nation s free enterprise political economy presented as the source of all American freedoms Fiction Catalog H.W.
