artist How to Pretend You're Normal for Two Hours Fran Preston, First impressions matter especially when you're trying to convince someone that you're a functioning human being and not a sleep-deprived overthinker with crumbs in your handbag and a mild existential crisis. In How to Pretend You're Normal for Two Hours Fran Preston offers a survival guide for the socially anxious, romantically hopeful and emotionally chaotic among us who are just trying to make it through a date without accidentally oversharing or sweating through our shirt. From mastering the art of small talk to strategically timing your toilet break, this book is your essential prep guide for getting through the most deceptively high-stakes event in modern life: the first date. With laugh-out-loud honesty, painfully relatable anecdotes and genuinely helpful tips, Fran helps you fake confidence just long enough to see if there's a real connection underneath the nerves. Because deep down, we're all pretending a little bit, and that's perfectly normal. Sort of. Helga's Diary Helga Weiss, 2013-02-14 The most moving Holocaust diary published since Anne Frank. Daily Telegraph. First they led us to the baths where they took from us everything we still had. Quite literally, there wasn't even a hair left. I didn't even recognize my own mother till I heard her voice. In 1941, aged 12, Helga Weiss, her mother and father were forced to say goodbye to their home, their relatives and all that they knew and were interned in the Nazi concentration camp of Terezin. For the next three years, Helga documented her experiences there and those of her friends and family in a diary. Then they were sent to Auschwitz and the diary was left behind, hidden in a wall. Helga was one of a tiny number of Jewish children from Prague to survive the Holocaust. After she returned home, she eventually managed to retrieve her diary and completed the journal of her experiences. The result is one of the most vivid first-hand accounts of the Holocaust ever to have been recovered. Anne Frank's diary finished when her family was rounded up for the camps. In Helga's Diary, we have a child's record of life inside the extermination factories. Shines a light into the long black night that was the Holocaust. Daily Express. Resounds with a ferocious will to endure conditions of astonishing cruelty. Displays a rare capacity to remain keenly observant and to find the right words for transmitting memory into history. New Statesman. A moving testimony to courage and endurance. Remarkable what is so compelling is the immediacy and unknowingness. Financial Times. Helga Weiss was born in Prague in 1929. Her father Otto was employed in the state bank and her mother Irena was a dressmaker. Of the 15,000 children brought to Terezin and later deported to Auschwitz, only 100 survived the Holocaust. Helga was one of them. On her return to Prague, she studied art and is well known for her paintings. She has two children, three grandchildren and lives in the flat where she was born. Betrayed (Book #3 in the Vampire Journals) Morgan Rice, 2011 Caitlin Paine awakes from a deep coma to discover she has been turned. Now a true full-bred vampire, she marvels at her new powers, including her ability to fly and her superhuman strength. She finds that her true love, Caleb, is still by her side, waiting patiently for her to recover. She has everything she could dream of.
