The Harvard Education Letter, 2003

Why Teach? James

Nehring, 2015-09-17 One year out of college James Nehring landed accidentally in teaching and soon discovered his love for the profession But he was surrounded by a school system consumed with order efficiency rules and punishment He wanted to change the system So began a quest that became a career Why Teach Notes and Questions from a Life in Education is a journey inside American education and a story of self discovery Why Teach is the perfect introductory text for an aspiring teacher a source of reflection for fellow educators and a compelling insider critique of the system from pre school to graduate school In an age dominated by social science Why Teach makes the case for a humanistic approach to schooling

Fires in the Middle School Bathroom Kathleen Cushman, Laura Rogers, 2009-09-08 The highly anticipated sequel to the bestselling Fires in the Bathroom filled with practical honest advice from middle school students to their teachers Following on the heels of the bestselling Fires in the Bathroom which brought the insights of high school students to teachers and parents Kathleen Cushman now turns her attention to the crucial and challenging middle grades joining forces with adolescent psychologist Laura Rogers As teachers counselors and parents cope with the roller coaster of early adolescence too few stop to ask students what they think about these critical years Here middle school students in grades 5 through 8

across the country and from diverse ethnic backgrounds offer insights on what it takes to make classrooms more effective and how to forge stronger relationships between young adolescents and adults Students tackle such critical topics as social emotional and academic pressures classroom behavior organization and preparing for high school Cushman and Rogers help readers hear and understand the vital messages about adolescent learning that come through in what these students say This invaluable resource provides a unique window into how middle school students think feel and learn bringing their needs to the forefront of the conversation about education
