Messervy,1921 Bulletin of the Pan American Union Pan American Union,1899 The Routledge History of World Peace since 1750 Christian Philip Peterson,William M. Sullivan,2004-08-30 This book provides a comparative analysis of 30 American interventions into Third World countries An historical approach is used to place the featured cases into a more general history of American Diplomacy The author uses his assessments to prove that U S foreign policy has been driven by the goal of being the ultimate power in the global capitalist economic system The author makes his work unique by giving a critical view of America s place in the world during an anticipated time of war and raised patriotism He provides a scholarly look at U S diplomacy leading up to the era of the War on Terror Sullivan explains how over the past 50 years the U S has come to succeed Europe as ruler of the global economic system The political systems which have been promoted by the U S to preserve worldwide capitalism range from one party rule to monarchies and recurring civil war The interventions discussed have proved to be short term successes for U S policy but more often tragic for the local societies affected Sullivan draws on his 1996 release Comparing State Politics to create a number of tables that place U S involvement into geographic and hierarchic perspective The reader is ultimately provided with a provocative thesis that challenges traditional interpretations of America s role in the world This book will be an asset to any undergraduate college student taking classes in political science or history It will also appeal to a general audience City Record Boston (Mass.),1917 The Columbia Guide to African American History Since 1939 Robert L Harris Jr.,Rosalyn Terborg-Penn,2006-06-27 This book is a multifaceted approach to understanding the central developments in African American history since 1939 It combines a historical overview of key personalities and movements with essays by leading scholars on specific facets of the African American experience a chronology of events and a guide to further study Marian Anderson s famous 1939 concert in front of the Lincoln Memorial was a watershed moment in the struggle for racial justice Beginning with this event the editors chart the historical efforts of African Americans to address racism and inequality They explore the rise of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements and the national and international contexts that shaped their ideologies and methods consider how changes in immigration patterns have complicated the conventional black white dichotomy in U S society discuss the often uneasy coexistence between a growing African American middle class and a persistent and sizable underclass and address the complexity of the contemporary African American experience Contributors consider specific issues in African American life including the effects of the postindustrial economy and the influence of music military service sports literature culture business and the politics of self designation e g Colored vs Negro Black vs African American While emphasizing political and social developments this volume also illuminates important economic
