children aged 7-14 with structured opportunities to develop their emotional literacy and emotional well-being. It is firmly supported by a wealth of research which links children's mental and physical health to the development of emotional literacy. In this second edition Tina Rae emphasises the development of emotional literacy skills and specifically the development of an emotional vocabulary: empathy, tolerance, resilience and motivation. The focus upon managing more complex and uncomfortable feelings is central to the programme and pupils are introduced to a variety of techniques which can be applied across a broad range of contexts. Included in this exciting resource pack are 40 Lesson plans, 236 full colour activity pages located on the online resources. Role play activities to develop joint problem solving skills. Packed with teacher friendly resources this book clearly fulfils the requirements of the PSHE curriculum and Healthy Schools agenda whilst also complimenting and building upon many of the themes in the SEAL curriculum Social and Emotional Aspects of Learning.

Parenting the Child Who Hurts Christine Gordon, Caroline Archer, 2012-12-15 An accessible guide to help foster and adoptive parents understand the neurobiological issues that affect children who have experienced early trauma. It demystifies the science behind child trauma, explains why conventional parenting won't work for these children and provides grounded advice on what will address common parenting dilemmas.

Enhancing Circle Time for the Very Young Margaret Collins, 2003-10-01 Written for anyone using Circle Time with 3 to 7 year olds this book sets out strategies and activities for making the most out of Circle Time sessions. Pre and post activities are included to encourage children to focus on the content of Circle Time as a way of sharing their work ideas and thoughts. The book provides 11 different themes that can be linked to PSHE ranging from Caring for Others to Keeping Safe. Each theme provides aims of Circle Time activities, Draw and Talk, follow up activities and suggestions for display, resources, reflections and evaluations. Margaret Collins is a former headteacher of infant and first schools. She is now Senior Visiting Fellow in the School of Education at the University of Southampton. She researches children's perceptions of health education topics, writes teaching materials for children books and articles on PSHE.

Foundations of Mathematics Carole Skinner, Judith Dancer, 2013-06-20 Foundations of Mathematics outlines seven strands of practice which underpin successful mathematical development in children aged 3-7. Early years mathematics specialists Carole and Judith draw on their experience of working with early years practitioners including consultants and advisers across the UK and internationally. The book is completely up to date and embeds the Revised Early Years Foundation Stage throughout the book. The book brims with multi-sensory ideas that will trigger children's curiosity: measuring using sand, mousse, hunting for buried treasure and building secret dens outdoors. There are activities that involve playing and exploring games to make learning active and experiences to develop creative and critical thinking. Alongside these practical experiences and activities are clear explanations of the reasoning behind the ideas with clear guidance on the role of the practitioner and Home Challenges to promote the engagement of families. The authors provide straightforward advice to support the development of a mathematically enriched learning environment and ideas to help children transfer learning into their own child initiated play to build a genuine and solid foundation for mathematics

Early Mathematical Explorations Nicola Yelland, Deborah Butler, Carmel Diezmann, 2014-01-20 This book presents teachers with a sound theoretical framework for encouraging children to explore mathematical concepts and become numerate in the 21st century It shows that mathematical learning can occur in a variety of ways including when children explore ideas through play problem solving and problem posing engage in a rich variety of multimodal learning experiences pursue self directed activities and cooperate with others and make connections between ideas and experiences in their everyday worlds Back cover
