A Geo-Big Year Alan M. MacEachren, 2022-11-22 A Geo Big Year Pandemic Retirement is for the Birds This book recounts a year long birding quest across Pennsylvania in 2021 The quest was to see at least 67 bird species in each of the state s 67 counties During the quest year the author now Professor of Geography Emeritus from Penn State University coped with the process of retiring after 42 years in academia and the challenges that the Covid 19 pandemic posed for safe travel The book chronicles the birding experiences and birds seen as well as the travel and retirement challenges The story told chronologically is focused on the search for birds It includes an account of what birds were seen or not seen in specific counties and specific sites within those counties It also recounts the quest itself as it unfolded Written by a Geographer places visited are also highlighted The narrative conveys the adventure of experiencing the mix of both popular and seldom visited places These places were mostly rural and included state and county parks game lands wildlife refuges trails and forests across the state together with less attractive places for humans that still attract birds such as cemeteries retention ponds and county dumps The book includes 471 black and white figures most of which are photo composites of birds seen and or of the places visited In total the 471 figures consist of more than 600 photos of birds plus more than 300 other images that include landscape scenes signage non bird creatures seen maps and graphs The book is intended for a wide audience Aspects of the account should resonate with readers who are or want to be birders are retired or contemplating retirement like to travel particularly on back roads and to natural places that are off the beaten track are academics thinking about work life balance have tried or thought about trying camping after not doing any for a long time have a bucket list to pursue have experienced life changes or expect to have some soon or have ever contemplated pursuing a birding big year or any other kind of year long quest Business Ethics K. Praveen Parboteeah, John B.

Cullen, 2013-04-12 Business Ethics provides a thorough review and analysis of business ethics issues using several learning tools Strategic Stakeholder Management as the Theme All chapters use a strategic stakeholder approach as a unifying theme The text is thus the first text that adopts this approach Most business ethics scholars and practitioners agree that successful ethical companies are the ones that can strategically balance the needs of their various stakeholders By adopting this approach students will be able to see how the various aspects of business ethics are connected Theory based and Application based All chapters have important applicable theories integrated with discussion of how such theories apply in practice Unlike other texts that are either too theoretical or too practical this text provides the appropriate blend of theory and practice to provide deeper insights into the concepts covered in the chapter Global Perspective Unless most other texts this text provides a global perspective on business ethics Most chapters include material pertaining to ethics in global contexts Included are cases about companies in a wide range of countries including Japan U K China and India among many others Cases The text contains over 30 real world global cases Each chapter ends with a short two page case as well as a longer case that varies in length Each has discussions questions at the end Finally each of the four parts ends with a Comprehensive Case proven teaching cases from The Ivey School and other sources 20 20 Smart Lists Shawn Holley, 2020-05-15 Book
