The lesson...

Lots of people on the Internet are not who they say they are and they are often trying to get your personal information so that they can use it illegally. They will ask you questions to find out personal information like your age, your pet's name, what your favourite food is or your favourite music artist or song.

This information helps them to build a profile of you. They can then use this information to do things online, pretending to be you. Their goal is to ask the least amount of questions but get the most information. Do you know who is asking you questions when you are online? What are they asking you about? How can they use this information online?
