ACT I

A voice on the radio reveals a murder has occurred at twenty-four Culver Street in Paddington. The victim was a Mrs. Maureen Lyon. The police are now anxious to interview a man seen in the vicinity, wearing a dark overcoat, light scarf, and soft felt hat. Mollie Ralston enters and turns off the radio, just as it warns about the icy road conditions due to heavy snow. She exits.

Giles Ralston enters through the front door and calls out for Mollie. Giles kisses her hello. He notes that her nose is cold and wonders if she has been out. She claims to have been to the Village and asks about his errand. He did not have any success and instead tells her about the weather. He predicts they will be snowed in tomorrow. This makes Mollie nervous because she wants everything to go well. Giles asks if she has cold feet about opening a guesthouse. She does not, but Giles wonders if they are prepared because he does not want to be scammed by guest. Mollie notes that all the guests have written from respectable areas, but Giles is still not convinced. What if one is a criminal, hiding out from the police, he wonders?

Giles leaves and Mollie turns the radio back on. As Mollie puts away Giles' coat, scarf, and hat the voice reminds listeners that the police are still anxious to interview a man seen in the vicinity, wearing a dark overcoat, light scarf, and soft felt hat. The doorbell rings and Mollie turns off the radio. Christopher Wren, a neurotic young man, enters. He is very talkative-about the house, about the positive impression Mollie has made, about his feeling that Giles does not like him, and about his general interest in people. It takes some convincing, but Giles and Mollie finally show him to his room.

The doorbell rings again. This time Mrs. Boyle enters. She had to share a taxi with Major Metcalf and is disappointed that no one met her at the train station. It is clear the Mrs. Boyle is very particular about her
