The Millennium Dome The Official Of The Dome:

The Millennium Dome Elizabeth Wilhide,1999 Officially endorsed by the New Millennium Experience Company The Millennium Dome is the flagship title about the creation of this latter day Wonder of the World The Battle for the Millennium Dome Alastair Irvine,1999 This work tells the story of how those responsible for the Millennium Dome s creation successfully overcame financial turmoil political intrigue and delays to beat the immovable deadline for creating the dome and its content before the arrival of the new millennium Cost and Value Management in Projects Ray R. Venkataraman,Jeffrey K. Pinto,2011-08-26 Cost and Value Management in Projects provides practicing managers with a thorough understanding of the various dimensions of cost and value in projects along with the factors that impact them and the managerial approaches that would be most effective for achieving cost efficiency and value optimization This book addresses cost from a strategic perspective offering thorough coverage of the various elements of value management such as value planning value engineering and value analysis from the perspective of projects The Trojan Horse Deborah Philips,Garry Whannel,2013-08-29 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com The Trojan Horse traces the growth of commercial sponsorship in the public sphere since the 1960s its growing importance for the arts since 1980 and its spread into areas such as education and health The authors central argument is that the image of sponsorship as corporate benevolence has served to routinize and legitimate the presence of commerce within the public sector The central metaphor is of such sponsorship as a Trojan Horse helping to facilitate the hollowing out of the public sector by private agencies and private finance The authors place the study in the context of the more general colonization of the state by private capital and the challenge posed to the dominance of neo liberal economics by the recent global financial crisis After considering the passage from patronage to sponsorship and outlining the context of the post war public sector since 1945 it analyses sponsorship in relation to Thatcherism enterprise culture and the restructuring of public provision during the 1980s It goes on to examine the New Labour years and the ways in which sponsorship has paved the way for the increased use of private public partnerships and private finance initiatives within the public sector in the UK Widespan Roof Structures Michael Barnes,Michael Dickson,2000 Presents world thinking on the design and construction of large covered spaces This book aims to offer insights into many of the innovative construction design projects It explores the advances within stressed membrane roofing atria and glass structures with a focus on international developments It also addresses the problems of construction Peter Kennard Peter Kennard,2019-08-20 This fully illustrated anthology showcases key images from Peter Kennard s work as Britain s foremost political artist over the last fifty years The book centres around Kennard s images photomontages and illustrations from protests year by year which provoked public outrage including Israel Palestine protests anti nuclear protests responses to austerity climate destruction and more Each image is accompanied by captions detailing not only the events in question but

Kennard's approach to the work including the genesis of the images and the techniques employed Ultimately the book highlights Kennard's extraordinary contribution to political art in the twenty first century Management Richard Pettinger, 2012-09-19 Management A Concise Introduction has been written with the student in mind short chapters easy identification of the key points and revision friendly sections Backed by robust academic theory with plenty of pedagogical features it has an engaging style and is all in all everything a student needs to understand the subject and pass the exam

Indoor Air Lidia Morawska, Neville D. Bofinger, Marco Maroni, 1995 The Indoor Air An Integrated Approach international workshop held in Australia 27 November 1 December 1994 provided an unequalled forum for the development of an integrated approach to the research health risk assessment and management of indoor air quality The aims of the workshop were to discuss strategies for comprehensive characterisation of indoor air develop a framework for integrated health risk assessment integrate strategies for controlling and managing all indoor air pollutants and define areas for future research that will lead to an overall improvement of indoor air quality Python beyond Python Paul N. Reinsch, B. Lynn

Whitfield, Robert G. Weiner, 2017-07-14 This collection of original interdisciplinary essays addresses the work of Monty Python members beyond the comedy show films and live performances These men are prolific creators in a variety of artistic realms beyond the confines of the comedy troupe Their work as individuals before and after coming together as Monty Python demonstrates a restless curiosity about culture that embraces absurdity but seldom becomes cynical Python members collectively and individually create unique approaches to theatre film video games comic books business training videos and more Python Beyond Python increases our understanding of this often neglected work and the meanings of Monty Python

The Sociology of Architecture Paul Jones, 2011-07-26 States have long been active in commissioning architecture which affords one way to embed political projects within socially meaningful cultural forms Such state led architecture is often designed not only to house the activities of government but also to reflect political economic shifts and to chime with a variety of internal and external publics as part of wider discourses of belonging From the vantage point of sociology this context necessitates critical engagement with the role of leading architects designs and discourses relative to politicized identity projects Focusing on the mobilization of architecture in periods of social change The Sociology of Architecture uses critical sociological frameworks to assess the distinctive force added to political projects by architects and their work Through engagement with a range of illustrative examples from contested contemporary and historical architectural projects Paul Jones analyses some of the ways in which architects have sought to position their architecture relative to state projects and wider publics A central objective of the book is to situate major architectural projects as a research agenda for sociologists and others interested in the relationship between power culture and collective identities Adopting a critical approach to such questions The Sociology of Architecture frames architecture as a field of contestation over symbolic and material resources which in turn provides an entry point for questioning the inextricably political ways in which collective identities are constructed maintained and mobilized A History of Britain in Just a Minute Gyles Brandreth, 2022-09-22 The story of us without hesitation repetition or deviation Join national treasure and Just a Minute regular Gyles Brandreth on a hilariously addictive romp through British history This isn't just another history book there's a catch From Stonehenge and Boudicca to Megxit and Brexit each topic is written in 60 second installments without hesitation repetition or deviation A History of Britain in Just a Minute celebrates key moments people and places from our past kings and queens heroes and villains triumphs and disasters inventions and events battles and bonnets art science literature entertainment sport gossip and more Some entries are uninterrupted minutes while others feature challenges for repetition and even er hesitation You'll even find other Just a Minute panellists occasionally grabbing the pen to regale us with their witty takes on history You've never heard the history of Britain told quite like this You'll enjoy every uproarious minute of it Architecture and Capitalism Peggy Deamer, 2013-07-18 Architecture and Capitalism tells a story of the relationship between the economy and architectural design Eleven historians each discuss in brand new essays the time period they know best looking at cultural and economic issues which in light of current economic crises you will find have dealt with diverse but surprisingly familiar economic issues Told through case studies the narrative begins in the mid nineteenth century and ends with 2011 with introductions by Editor Peggy Deamer to pull the main themes together so that you can see how other architects in different times and in different countries have dealt with similar economic conditions By focussing on what previous architects experienced you have the opportunity to avoid repeating the past With new essays by Pier Vittorio Aureli Ellen Dunham Jones Keller Easterling Lauren Kogod Robert Hewison Joanna Merwood Salisbury Robin Schuldenfrei Deborah Gans Simon Sadler Nathan Rich and Micahel Sorkin Cultural Capital Robert Hewison, 2014-11-11 Britain began the twenty first century convinced of its creativity Throughout the New Labour era the visual and performing arts museums and galleries were ceaselessly promoted as a stimulus to national economic revival a post industrial revolution where spending on culture would solve everything from national decline to crime Tony Blair heralded it a golden age Yet despite huge investment the audience for the arts remained a privileged minority So what went wrong In Cultural Capital leading historian Robert Hewison gives an in depth account of how creative Britain lost its way From Cool Britannia and the Millennium Dome to the Olympics and beyond he shows how culture became a commodity and how target obsessed managerialism stifled creativity In response to the failures of New Labour and the austerity measures of the Coalition government Hewison argues for a new relationship between politics and the arts Introduction to Management Richard Pettinger, 2020-03-06 This popular core textbook provides an authoritative introduction to business management Covering all the functional areas of the field the text provides a robust framework to help students understand the inter relatedness of different aspects of management and how they fit together in an organisation Strong emphasis is placed throughout on providing students with a thorough and practical grounding in the topic with a focus on helping them developing effective management skills Now in its fourth edition
