Fueling Freedom Stephen Moore,Kathleen Hartnett White,2016-05-23 Fossil fuel energy is the lifeblood of the modern world Before the Industrial Revolution humanity depended on burning wood and candle wax But with the ability to harness the energy in oil and other fossil fuels quality of life and capacity for progress increased exponentially Thanks to incredible innovations in the energy industry fossil fuels are as promising safe and clean an energy resource as has ever existed in history Yet highly politicized climate policies are pushing a grand scale shift to unreliable impractical incredibly expensive and far less efficient energy sources Today fossil fuel has become such a dirty word that even fossil fuel companies feel compelled to apologize for their products In Fueling Freedom energy experts Stephen Moore and Kathleen Hartnett White make an unapologetic case for fossil fuels turning around progressives protestations to prove that if fossil fuel energy is supplanted by green alternatives for political reasons humanity will take a giant step backwards and the planet will be less safe less clean and less free

The Final Elegy: the Consolation of the Classics in Old Age Richard Oliver Brooks,2022-08-01 Old age is a time of losses permanent cumulative and irreversible These losses include our loss of work in retirement the eclipse of our past our biological decline dependency resulting from such decline the foreshortening of our future the abandonment of belief in our own improvement and our society s progress and of course our death This book views these losses as part of an elegy of old age Elegy is a poetic or prose mourning of loss Sadness and other emotions result With elegiac understanding we detach ourselves from these losses to seek and find consolation This book is concerned with achieving intellectual detachment through meditative reflection with the help of reading and appreciating the classics The final stage of the old age

elegy consolation can be found at least in part within the classics the garlands of repose The classics are broadly defined by Matthew Arnold as the best that has been thought and said or found in the fine arts To benefit from the classis requires a life long liberal education This education begins with an introduction to the classics in youth makes use of them during our adult lives and supplies their conclusion for old age meditation Such significant works enable us to place the losses we suffer within an intellectual framework of perennial ideas It is by means of such an intellectual framework that we secure consolation in old age Classic works familiarize us deeply with the losses and emotions we endure suggest substitutes for the goods of the life we have lost in old age offer opportunities of catharsis for the sadness we experience and help us transform ourselves in old age Classics help us see old age and its losses as part of a complete life which hold a unique value of its own while remaining part of larger nature processes history and intellectual traditions
