The Multifaith Movement Global Risks And Cosmopolitan Solutions:

The Multifaith Movement: Global Risks and Cosmopolitan Solutions Anna Halafoff, 2012-10-29 This book documents the ultramodern rise of the multifaith movement as multifaith initiatives have been increasingly deployed as cosmopolitan solutions to counter global risks such as terrorism and climate change at the turn of the 21st century These projects aim to enhance common security particularly in Western societies following the events of September 11 2001 and the July 2005 London bombings where multifaith engagement has been promoted as a strategy to counter violent extremism The author draws on interviews with 56 leading figures in the field of multifaith relations including Paul Knitter Eboo Patel Marcus Braybrooke Katherine Marshall John Voll and Krista Tippett Identifying the principle aims of the multifaith movement the analysis explores the benefits and challenges of multifaith engagement as well as the effectiveness of multifaith initiatives in countering the process of radicalization Building on notions of cosmopolitanism the work proposes a new theoretical framework termed Netpeace which recognizes the interconnectedness of global problems and their solutions In doing so it acknowledges the capacity of multi actor peacebuilding networks including religious and state actors to address the pressing dilemmas of our times The primary intention of the book is to assist in the formation of new models of activism and governance founded on a politics of understanding modeled by the multifaith movement

Religious Diversity in Australia Douglas Ezzy, Anna Halafoff, Greg Barton, Rebecca Banham, 2024-03-07 This book documents the structure of religious diversity in Australia and examines this diversity in the context of the law migration education policing the media and interfaith communities Focusing on Melbourne and Tasmania it articulates the benefits and opportunities of diversity alongside the challenges that confront religious and ethnic minorities including discrimination and structural inequalities generated by Christian and other forms of privilege It articulates constructive strategies that are deployed including encouraging forms of belonging structured ways of negotiating disagreement and respectful engagement with difference While scholars across the West are increasingly attuned to the problems and promises of growing religious diversity in a global age in depth empirical research on the consequences of that diversity in Australia is lacking This book provides a rich well researched and timely intervention

Talking Dialogue Karsten Lehmann, 2021-02-22 Throughout the last two decades the modern dialogue movement has gained worldwide significance The knowledge about its origins is however still very limited This book presents a wide range of insights from eleven case studies into the early history of several important international interreligious interfaith dialogue organizations that have shaped the modern development of interreligious dialogue from the late nineteenth century up to the present Based on new archival research they describe on the one hand how these actors put their ideals into practice and on the other how they faced many challenges as pioneers in the establishment of new interreligious interfaith organizational structures This book concludes with a comparison of those case studies bringing to light new and broader historico sociological understanding of the beginnings of international and multi religious interreligious interfaith dialogue organizations over more than one century The World's Parliament of Religions 1893 The Religious Menschheitsbund 1921 The World Congress of Faiths 1933 1950 The Committee on the Church and the Jewish People of the World Council of Churches 1961 The Temple of Understanding 1968 The International Association for Religious Freedom 1969 The World Conference on Religion and Peace 1970 The Council for a Parliament of the World's Religions 1989 1991 The Oxford International Interfaith Centre 1993 The United Religions Initiative 2000 The Universal Peace Federation 2005 Based on these analyses the authors identify three distinct groups with sometimes conflicting interests that are shaping the movement individual religious virtuosi countercultural activists and representatives of religious institutions Published in cooperation with the King Abdullah Bin Abdulaziz International Centre for Interreligious Intercultural Dialogue Vienna

Religion and Development in the Asia-Pacific Matthew Clarke, Anna Halafoff, 2016-08-25 Community development is most effective and efficient when it is situated and led at the local level and considers the social behaviours needs and worldviews of local communities With more than eight out of ten people globally self-reporting religious belief Religion and Development in the Asia Pacific Sacred places as development spaces argues that the role and impact of religions on community development needs to be better understood It also calls for greater attention to be given to the role of sacred places as sites for development activities and for a deeper appreciation of the way in which sacred stories and teachings inspire people to work for the benefit of others in particular locations The book considers theories of place as a component of successful development interventions and expands this analysis to consider the specific role that sacred places buildings and social networks have in planning implementing and promoting sustainable development A series of case studies examine various sacred places as sites for development activities These case studies include Christian churches and disaster relief in Vanuatu Muslim shrines and welfare provision in Pakistan a women's Buddhist monastery in Thailand advancing gender equity a Jewish aid organisation providing language training to Muslim Women in Australia and Hawaiian sacred sites located within a holistic retreat centre committed to ecological sustainability Religion and Development in the Asia Pacific demonstrates the important role that sacred spaces can play in development interventions covering diverse major world religions interfaith and spiritual contexts and as such will be of considerable interest for postgraduate students and researchers in development studies religious studies sociology of religion and geography

The Critical Analysis of Religious Diversity Lene Kühle, Jørn Borup, William Hoverd, 2018-06-19 Drawing on international and thematic case studies The Critical Analysis of Religious Diversity asks its readers to pay attention to the assumptions and processes by which scholars religious practitioners and states construct religious diversity The study has three foci theoretical and methodological issues religious diversity in non Western contexts and religious diversity in social contexts Together these trans contextual studies are utilised to develop a critical analysis exploring how agency power and language construct understandings of religious diversity As a result the book argues that reflexive scholarship needs to consider that the dynamics of diversification and homogenisation are fundamental to understanding social and religious life that religious diversity is a Western concept and that definitions of religious diversity are often entangled by and within dynamic empirical realities Contributors are Martin Baumann Peter Beyer Jørn Borup Paul Bramadat Marian Burchardt Henrik Reintoft Christensen Andrew Dawson Mar Griera Anna Halafoff William Hoverd Lene Kühle Mar Marcos Stefania Travagnin and Andreas Tunger Zanetti

The Routledge Handbook of Religion, Gender and Society

Caroline Starkey, Emma Tomalin, 2021-12-30 In an era which many now recognise as post secular the role that religions play in shaping gender identities and relationships has been awarded a renewed status in the study of societies and social change In both the Global South and the Global North in the 21st century religiosity is of continuing significance not only in people's private lives and in the family but also in the public sphere and with respect to political and legal systems The Routledge Handbook of Religion Gender and Society is an outstanding reference source to these key topics problems and debates in this exciting subject area Comprising over 40 chapters by a team of international contributors the Handbook is divided into 3 parts Critical debates for religions gender and society theories concepts and methodologies Issues and themes in religions gender and society Contexts and locations Within these sections central issues debates and problems are examined including activism gender analysis intersectionality and feminism oppression and liberation equality bodies and embodiment space and place leadership and authority diaspora and migration marriage and the family generation and aging health and reproduction education violence and conflict ecology and climate change and the role of social media The Routledge Handbook of Religion Gender and Society is essential reading for students and researchers in religious studies and gender studies The Handbook will also be very useful for those in related fields such as cultural studies area studies politics sociology anthropology and history

Interfaith Networks and Development Ezra Chitando, Ishanesu Sextus Gusha, 2022-03-15 Although there is growing interest in the role of religion in meeting the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs Agenda 2030 very few studies have focused on the contributions of interfaith networks Most of the contemporary publications on religion and development focus on single religions or faith based organizations This volume addresses the lacuna in the available scholarship by undertaking detailed analyses of how interfaith networks in diverse African contexts contribute to development Chapters in this volume engage in theoretical debates on interfaith networks and development while describing concrete fresh case studies on how particular interfaith networks are contributing towards the meeting of the SDGs in specific contexts Thus the volume describes older and newer interfaith networks and analyses their achievements and challenges Contributors focus on SDGs that include peacebuilding gender youth the environment as well as overviews of interfaith initiatives in different African contexts

The Oxford History of Anglicanism, Volume V William L. Sachs, 2017-12-15 The Oxford History of Anglicanism provides a global study of Anglicanism from the sixteenth century to the twenty first The five volumes in the series look at how Anglican identity was constructed and contested since the English Reformation of the sixteenth century and examine its historical influence during the past six centuries They consider not only the ecclesiastical and theological aspects of global Anglicanism but also the political social economic and cultural influences of this form of Christianity that has been historically significant in Western culture and a burgeoning force in non Western societies since the nineteenth century Written by international experts in their various historical fields each volume analyses the varieties of Anglicanism that have emerged The series also highlights the formal political institutional and ecclesiastical forces that have shaped a global Anglicanism and the interaction of Anglicanism with informal and external influences which have both moulded Anglicanism and been fashioned by it Volume five of The Oxford History of Anglicanism considers the global experience of the Church of England in mission and in the transitions of its mission Churches towards autonomy in the twentieth century The Church developed institutionally yet more than the institutional history of the Church of England and its spheres of influence is probed The contributors focus on what it has meant to be Anglican in diverse contexts What spread from England was not simply a religious institution but the religious tradition it intended to implant The volume addresses questions of the conduct of mission its intended and unintended consequences It offers important insights on what decolonization meant for Anglicans as the mission Church in various global locations became self reliant This study breaks new ground in describing the emergence of an Anglicanism shaped more contextually than externally It illustrates how Anglicanism became enculturated across a broad swath of cultural contexts The influence of context and the challenge of adaption to it framed Anglicanism s twentieth century experience

Education about Religions and Worldviews Anna Halafoff, Elisabeth Arweck, Donald Boisvert, 2018-02-02 This volume presents the findings of a number of empirical and theoretical studies on education about religions and worldviews ERW conducted in the Western societies of Britain Ireland Canada Norway Finland New Zealand Australia and Canada Educational programmes about diverse religions and worldviews began to be investigated and implemented as strategies to encourage interreligious understanding and social cohesion particularly following the 2005 London bombings when a fear of youth radicalisation and home grown terrorism became prevalent In addition as a growing number of people in Western societies and young people especially declare themselves to have no religious affiliation state actors are currently grappling with the reality that we are living in increasingly multifaith and non religious societies and government education systems have become places of contestation as a result of these changes This volume examines ERW research and policies in a number of diverse places in the hope of identifying common themes overlapping insights and best practices that can inform research and policy for religious literacy and interreligious understanding in other contexts This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Intercultural Studies
