The New Senior Man Thelma Reese, Barbara M. Fleisher, 2017-10-06 The New Senior Man Exploring New Horizons New Opportunities fills a gap that is already huge and growing Where do men fit into the astonishing changes in both life expectancy and visibility of the aging boomers among us Unlike women who move into retirement years with a network of friends and intimates cultivated over decades men for the most part do it alone Changes in women s lives and in the culture have brought changes for men who were told to man up since they were toddlers Having faced that challenge throughout their lives it s time now to do it again to see changes in the world around them as opportunities to discover new strengths and passions to make the most of the gift of time With perhaps a third of productive life ahead retirement requires redefinition Where are the role models among the men who at this critical turning point in their lives continue to redefine and reinvent their lives past the time of the proverbial gold watch and a set of golf clubs As pioneers in this rapidly emerging new world the men whose narratives appear in this book are role models for each other and those who follow They seek more than advice about investments and improving their golf strokes Men from all walks of life tell us in their own words how they see the challenges and chances that lie ahead and within themselves and how they are taking full advantage of opportunities that re start living Each chapter presents a topic relevant to this later stage of life memory family dynamics sexual intimacy loss and independence among others Like a conversation among friends the book introduces readers to new ways of looking at the present and the future so that men may cultivate a lifestyle that not only suits them but supports a healthy rewarding and enjoyable reframing of life Aging Joyfully Carla Marie Manly, 2019-07-30 With an honest humorous approach Manly illuminates the unexpected delights of aging while offering expert insights into navigating aging challenges Erica Manfred author of I'm Old So Why Aren't I Wise How does a woman embrace her maturity with joy and strength when her life and her body change year to year Psychologist Dr Carla Marie Manly provides an important and meaningful window into womanhood for those approaching fifty and beyond A must read book for any woman approaching the age of fifty Aging Joyfully touches the sensitive reality of the transition from a life filled with new beginnings to a graceful process filled with freedom beauty and joy Includes chapters on Loving Your Changing Maturing Body Your Health What to Expect with Menopause Memory Changes and More Shifting Relationships Understanding and Adapting to Natural Changes in Relationship Dynamics The Worlds of Work and Retirement Facing Ageism and Retirement with Awareness Aging Parents Caregiving and Loss Gracefully Caring for Others and Letting Go and Slowing Down as the Time Speeds Up The Art of Transitioning into a New Life Role The blend of intelligence and compassion in this beautiful book should help many women deal with the real issues in getting older You will find guidance understanding and a positive but not unrealistic approach to aging Thomas Moore New York Times bestselling author of Care of the Soul The book points to inner treasures that chronological age cannot touch and finds beauty in aging deep love in elder years and the joy of a mindset that is eager for what's to come Foreword Reviews How Seniors Are Saving the World Thelma Reese, BJ Kittredge, 2020-06-10 Articles appear frequently about individuals whose age is noted as a feature of their activism but the activism of seniors as a growing and influential part of the population is often otherwise overlooked The speed of change the expansion of the senior demographic the growth of citizen participation and the constant visual images reminding us of these factors tell us that it is time to look to seniors who are putting their time and energies into helping others and helping the world Whatever one's political view there is consensus in recognizing that we are living in a time of tremendous change when traditionally trusted institutions and cultural mores are questioned and seriously challenged It is a time when more and more individuals feel a need to do something something about issues that concern them something that makes them aware of the need for a sense of control in a world in chaos something that makes them aware of their own strength power and the value of the wisdom that comes with age In a time when social media make shallow clicktivists of so many the people profiled here are true activists Their dedication crosses all societal lines ethnic political religious and socio economic Some have always considered themselves activists Some find that this stage of life brings a new perspective that results in the need to do more than say They tell us in their own words the what why and meaning of their specific activism and show others how to do it Their stories are inspiring for people of all ages Death, Dying, and Bereavement Judith Stillion, Thomas Attig, 2014-11-07 Delivers the collective wisdom of foremost scholars and practitioners in the death and dying movement from its inception to the present Written by luminaries who have shaped the field this capstone book distills the collective wisdom of foremost scholars and practitioners who together have nearly a millennium of experience in the death and dying movement. The book bears witness to the evolution of the movement and presents the insights of its pioneers, eyewitnesses, and major contributors past and present. Its chapters address contemporary intellectual, institutional, and practice developments in thanatology, hospice and palliative care, funeral practice, death education, and caring of the dying, suicidal, bereaved, and traumatized. With a breadth and depth found in no other text on death, dying, and bereavement, the book disseminates the thinking of prominent authors: William Worden, David Clark, Tony Walter, Robert Neimeyer, Charles Corr, Phyllis Silverman, Betty Davies, Therese A. Rando, Colin Murray Parkes, Kenneth Doka, Allan Kellehear, Sandra Bertman, Stephen Connor, Linda Goldman, Mary Vachon, and others. Their chapters discuss the most significant facets of early development, review important current work, and assess major challenges and hopes for the future in the areas of their expertise. A substantial chronology of important milestones in the contemporary movement introduces the book, frames the chapters to follow, and provides guidance for further in-depth reading. The book first focuses on the interdisciplinary intellectual achievements that have formed the foundation of the field of thanatology. The section on institutional innovations encompasses contributions in hospice and palliative care of the dying and their families, funeral service, and death education. The section on practices addresses approaches to counseling and providing support for individuals, families, and communities on issues related to dying, bereavement, suicide, trauma, disaster, and caregiving. trends aspirational goals and common policy interventions surrounding Africa's youth that have been variously propagated in both the development studies literature and in mainstream donor policy reports The book explores macro trends from both a temporal and cross regional perspective in order to highlight what is distinct about contemporary African youth and whether their prospects and behaviours do actually vary from their counterparts in other regions of the world or from previous generations of African youth Such studies include cross country analyses of youth employment patterns and modes of political participation in depth examination of the behaviours and aspirations of the urban youth and critical reflections on the impact of rural employment initiatives vocational education and learnership programmes The incorporation of multiple methods and disciplines as well as its attention to policy issues ensures that the book will be of great interest to graduate students researchers and professional researchers whose work lies at the intersection of African area studies and development studies as well as those focused on development economics political science and public policy and administration
