The Mask of Apollo Mary Renault, 2015-08-06 Mary Renault is a shining light to both historical novelists and their readers She does not pretend the past is like the present or that the people of ancient Greece were just like us She shows us their strangeness discerning sure footed challenging our values piquing our curiosity she leads us through an alien landscape that moves and delights us HILARY MANTEL Mary Renault's portraits of the ancient world are fierce complex and eloquent infused at every turn with her life long passion for the Classics Her characters live vividly both in their own time and in ours MADELINE MILLER Combining the scholarship of a historian with the imagination of a novelist Mary Renault brings the ancient Greek stage thrillingly to life Set in fourth century B C Greece The Mask of Apollo is narrated by Nikeratos a tragic actor who takes with him on all his travels a gold mask of Apollo a relic of the theatre's golden age which is now past At first his mascot the mask gradually becomes his conscience and he refers to it his gravest decisions when he finds himself at the centre of a political crisis in which the philosopher Plato is also involved Much of the action is set in Syracuse where Plato's friend Dion is trying to persuade the young tyrant Dionysios the Younger to accept the rule of law Through Nikeratos eyes the reader watches as the clash between the two unleashes all the pent up violence in the city All my sense of the ancient world its values its style the scent of its wars and passions comes from Mary Renault I turned to writing historical fiction because of something I learned from Renault that it lets you shake off the mental shackles of your own era all the categories and labels and write freely about what really matters to you EMMA DONOGHUE There's much to wonder at in the way she fills in the large dark spaces where we know next to nothing about the times she

J. Hartley,2006 When the proprietor of an obscure museum is found dead amidst priceless Greek antiquities one of which is missing along with the bones of a legendary hero thought to exist only in myth museum curator Deborah Miller enters into dangerous realm of mystery murder and vengeance Original Troy Costas Komborozos,2017-09-12 The goddess weeps for me She places the golden mask on my face as her glittering tears fall like fluttering rose petals through air that trembles with light Her eyes are fixed upon the golden mask The mask shines ornamenting the grim contours of my loveless visage Moments ago Clytemnestra drove daggers through me Her murderous eyes fell upon the merciless stream of blood coursing through the now uninhabited citadel of my body The sight of the sacrificed Iphigenia was still emblazoned on her grieving mind My wife watched as my life flooded out me and I slowly felt myself being swept by a dark tide into the underworld I felt a golden world slip away and all that is left of it is the mask that now covers my lifeless face I was told that the mask would allow my face to remain untouched while the rest of my body decomposed I was told that a thousand years from now someone will remove the mask and marvel at the immortal complexion underneath The goddess continues to weep for me as everyone else has ceased to pour wordless whispers of longing upon my empty throne The mask blissfully seared into my flesh and began its act of preserving my features so that they would live on Destiny wears a mask and now it will reveal its visage to me It removes its mask as it stands before I am young again but this time I am wearing the golden mask I realize that destiny will show its face to me as my face remains hidden behind gold Moments ago destiny entered the throne room with a shroud My mask allowed me to see each movement destiny made I wonder whether things will be different now I already know everything that will transpire in the future the abduction of Helen the sacrifice of Iphigenia the siege of Troy the death of Achilles and my own murder at the hands of Clytemnestra I wonder whether I can prevent my daughter from being needlessly sacrificed I wonder whether the voices of the gods will no longer push me to the brink of madness Now destiny holds its mask The moment I look into its eyes I know that everything that happened will happen again I am wearing the mask now because I will wear it during my funeral It is after all a funeral mask Everything will happen as before because whether destiny is masked and unmasked is of no consequence to me anymore Death has already come for destiny spoke it
