Wood,Albrecht Altdorfer,1993-12 Altdorfer s landscapes offer a densely textured interpretation of that quintessentially German place the forest interior As Wood explains however these scenes far from doctrinally innocent the forest that Altdorfer painted drew and etched is both a refuge from Christian rites and a mythical setting of idolatry In producing his landscapes Altdorfer flaunted and exaggerated the formal principles of a regional pictorial tradition Wood demonstrates that the abrasive surface effects incessant ornamental movement and structural impenetrability of these pictures make them the incunabula of a self resistance to literal readings Altdorfer s landscapes also resemble the exactly contemporary pastorals and allegories of Giovanni Bellini Lorenzo Lotto and Giorgione Because of Altdorfer s influence on the next generation of German and Netherlandish artists his work forms a crucial link between Northern religious imagery and the modern development of landscape of a genre Author - Title Catalog University of California, Berkeley.
