Panopticon Jenni Fagan, 2019-02-28 T00:00:00+01:00 Nella desolata campagna alla periferia di Edimburgo svetta una torre di guardia il Panopticon una struttura circolare con tante piccole celle controllate dall'alto da un occhio invisibile Qui vengono rinchiusi i ragazzi senza speranza i giovani disadattati segnati per sempre da un'infanzia difficile Come Anais Hendricks 15 anni che da quando nata passata da una famiglia all'altra sballottata tra assistenti sociali e genitori adottivi E adesso accusata di aver mandato in coma una poliziotta Al Panopticon non sar' facile sopravvivere Qui si viene spiati giorno e notte studiati come cavie Per non perdere la testa il trucco non pensare non vedere e magari affezionarsi agli strampalati compagni di sventura Oppure inventarsi una meravigliosa realtà parallela Da una scrittrice scozzese di talento l'erede di Irvine Welsh un romanzo spregiudicato e spiazzante pieno di humour e voglia di rivincita con una giovane eroina indimenticabile

Panopticon, The Panopticon Writings Jeremy Bentham, 2020-05-05 The Panopticon project for a model prison obsessed the English philosopher Jeremy Bentham for almost 20 years In the end the project came to nothing the Panopticon was never built But it is precisely this that makes the Panopticon project the best exemplification of Bentham's own theory of fictions according to which non-existent fictitious entities can have all too real effects There is probably no building that has stirred more philosophical controversy than Bentham's Panopticon The Panopticon is not merely as Foucault thought a cruel ingenious cage in which subjects collaborate in their own subjection but much more constructing the Panopticon produces not only a prison but also a god within it The Panopticon is a machine which on assembly is already inhabited by a ghost It is through the Panopticon and the closely related theory of fictions that Bentham has made his greatest impact on modern thought above all on the theory of power The Panopticon writings are frequently cited rarely read This edition contains the complete Panopticon Letters together with selections from Panopticon Postscript I and Fragment on Ontology Bentham's fullest account of fictions A comprehensive introduction by Miran Bozovic explores the place of Panopticon in contemporary theoretical debate

Conspiracy, Revolution, and Terrorism from Victorian Fiction to the Modern Novel Adrian S. Wisnicki, 2008 Drawing on critical and theoretical work by Miller Boone Foucault Jameson and others as well as cultural history affect theory and contemporary psychiatric literature the author defines and explores what he calls the Victorian conspiracy narrative tradition a tradition which embraces classic Victorian works like Bleak House Great Expectations Villette and The Moonstone as well as later Victorian and Edwardian novels by James Conrad and Chesterton and early spy thrillers such as The Riddle of the Sands and The Thirty Nine Steps In reading these works as instances of a single literary tradition the conspiracy narrative tradition the author traces how the representation of conspiracy changes in nineteenth century British literature and argues that many of these changes occur in response to significant Victorian era developments such as the European revolutions of 1848-49 the rise of British law enforcement agencies the growth of Irish Fenian terrorism and the fin de siècle waning of the British Empire The book also explores the roles that conspiratorial indeterminacy and irony play in shaping the Victorian conspiracy narrative tradition and examines how modern works by Proust Kafka and Pynchon appropriate elements from Victorian conspiracy narratives Finally in using recent work on affect theory as well as studies of paranoia by Freud Shapiro and Meissner the book traces how Victorian works fashion the paranoid subject a discursive process that ultimately leads to the emergence of the modern fictional conspiracy theorist

The Self in the Cell Sean C. Grass, 2014-01-27 Michel Foucault's writing about the Panopticon in Discipline and Punish has dominated discussions of the prison and the novel and recent literary criticism draws heavily from Foucauldian ideas about surveillance to analyze metaphorical forms of confinement policing detection and public scrutiny and censure But real Victorian prisons and the novels that portray them have few similarities to the Panopticon Sean Grass provides a necessary alternative to Foucault by tracing the cultural history of the Victorian prison and pointing to the tangible relations between Victorian confinement and the narrative production of the self The Self in the Cell examines the ways in which separate confinement prisons with their demand for autobiographical production helped to provide an impetus and a model that guided novelists' explorations of the private self in Victorian fiction
