4 pages | 987 words

My name is Carlos Galvan I am 19.I have been to many different schools.so this is a part of me which I will like to share. Of my middle school year. And this is the story of my memorable day. The most memorable day was when I was in 7th grade. It all started when my grades where going down the hill. That's when my counselor called me into her office. She said, "I was going through your grades and they seem to be descending". I got shocked since I thought I was getting better since I kept my brain sharp. Well by reading and what not.so she then told me about a special program. which was called Brownsville Learning Academy. She mentioned "it is a program which would help you with your grades". and well it did sound interesting. So, I did the paperwork and waited in the front office. Which also had three other students that said they were also heading to B.L.A. I gave my mother a call telling her to pick me up. She arrived a brief time later, I told her to take me to B.L.A that I was going to register there. Afterward Mother and I finally arrived at the school, which it surprised me that it wasn't really a building but rather portables. Which seem interesting since it was open field. After looking around I headed into the main office where I told the lady upfront. That I was coming from Lucio middle school. She told me "oh are you here to register? If so go to the counselor's office". So that's exactly what I did. After getting my paperwork done and I was registered they finally gave me my schedule. Man was I excited. I checked my schedule my first class was English which was a topic I liked. Well they didn't have work book, they had something called modules which was different from the stuff I worked with. Anyways it was actually easy. Soon 12:00 pm struck. It was lunchtime which I got a little nervous since I didn't know anyone else. Well besides the other 3 fellas which in the end we all sat together. And I got to say it was actually not bad everything was going just right. Until math class, which I'm not that good with.so my teacher handed me a test locator which functioned as an exam to determine where my math skilled where at. Turns out that I scored a low grade. Which my teacher told me "you'll start with division". Soon the day was ending.it was time to head home. I was excited to tell my mom all about my day and how it went. I told her after dinner that It was fun and really enjoyed being there. She said well if you are happy then stay. After I finished telling her the rest of my story it was time to sleep. Second day of school. I woke up to a loud noise of my alarm which startled me.it is Time shower and brush my teeth I said to myself. Afterwards mother called...
