is a din of voices participating in the debate over how young people are affected by violence strong language and explicit sexual activity in films The Motion Picture Association of America MPAA responded to this concern in 1968 when it introduced a classification and rating system based on the now well known labels G PG PG 13 R and X For some these simple tags are an efficient way to protect children from viewing undesirable content But do the MPAA ratings actually protect children In The Naked Truth Kevin S Sandler argues that the rating system does not protect children but instead protects the Hollywood film industry One prime indicator of this is the collective abandonment of the NC 17 rating in 1990 by the major distributors of the MPAA and the main exhibitors of the National Association of Theatre Owners By categorizing all films released by Hollywood and destined for mainstream theaters into R ratings or lower the industry ensures that its products are perceived as responsible entertainment to all audiences and incontestable to politicians and moral reformers By embracing a no NC 17 rule the industry collapses mature subject matter with pornography creating a national cinema where certain representations of sex and nudity are taboo

Why would I spend a good portion of my time over the last 35 years gathering information on the Gymnosophists? The story begins even earlier. As an undergraduate student in the Flint College of the University of Michigan, I pursued an English major with a strong history minor, always looking for something between the two and rarely finding it. Then, in my practice teaching, I happened into one of the early experimental high school courses in Interdisciplinary Humanities. With the exciting interrelationships between art, literature, music, philosophy, and history, I said YES, this was what I had been looking for. So I pioneered in teaching high school Humanities for the next few years. Interdisciplinary Humanities was a bottom-up movement. Gradually, colleges began offering Masters programs to give teachers the rich background they needed. I decided I was not tied to Michigan where it was cold; I would find the best Masters program in Humanities anywhere in the world and go there. Well, it turned out that the best Masters program in the world was at Wayne State University in Detroit. Unlike other programs that were really just double majors, Wayne offered truly interdisciplinary classes. Moreover, they offered an Eastern track and a Western track. Knowing that I would never find that Eastern track anywhere else, I studied interdisciplinary courses in the cultures of India, China, Japan, and Egypt. The middle eastern professor was on sabbatical when I was there. I especially liked India, perhaps because I had already travelled around the world and India impressed me the most.
