The Oxford Handbook Of Comparative Law 2015:

The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Law Mathias Reimann, Reinhard Zimmermann, 2019-03-26 This fully revised and updated second edition of The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Law provides a wide ranging and diverse critical survey of comparative law at the beginning of the twenty first century It summarizes and evaluates a discipline that is time honoured but not easily understood in all its dimensions In the current era of globalization this discipline is more relevant than ever both on the academic and on the practical level The Handbook is divided into three main sections Section I surveys how comparative law has developed and where it stands today in various parts of the world This includes not only traditional model jurisdictions such as France Germany and the United States but also other regions like Eastern Europe East Asia and Latin America Section II then discusses the major approaches to comparative law its methods goals and its relationship with other fields such as legal history economics and linguistics Finally section III deals with the status of comparative studies in over a dozen subject matter areas including the major categories of private economic public and criminal law The Handbook contains forty eight chapters written by experts from around the world The aim of each chapter is to provide an accessible original and critical account of the current state of comparative law in its respective area which will help to shape the agenda in the years to come Each chapter also includes a short bibliography referencing the definitive works in the field

Comparative Law and Regulation Francesca Bignami, David Zaring, 2016-09-30 Governance by regulation rules propounded and enforced by bureaucracies is taking a growing share of the sum total of governance Once thought to be an American phenomenon it is now a central form of state action in every part of the world including Europe Latin America and Asia and it is at the core of much international lawmaking In Comparative Law and Regulation original contributions by leading scholars in the field focus both on the legal dimension of regulation and on how this dimension operates in those places that have turned to regulation to meet their obligations

The Oxford Handbook of the Australian Constitution Cheryl Saunders, Adrienne Stone, 2018-03-01 Constitutional law provides the legal framework for the Australian political and legal systems and thus touches almost every aspect of Australian life The Handbook offers a critical analysis of some of the most significant aspects of Australian constitutional arrangements setting them against the historical legal political and social contexts in which Australia's constitutional system has developed It takes care to highlight the distinctive features of the Australian constitutional system by placing the Australian system where possible in global perspective The chapters of the Handbook are arranged in seven thematically grouped parts The first Foundations deals with aspects of Australian history which have influenced constitutional arrangements The second Constitutional Domain addresses the interaction between the constitution and other relevant legal systems and orders including the common law international law and state constitutions The third Themes identifies themes of special constitutional significance including the legitimacy of the constitution citizenship and republicanism The fourth Practice and Process deals with practical issues relevant to constitutional litigation including the processes techniques and authority of the High Court of Australia The final three parts deal with the structural building blocks of the Australian Constitutional system Separation of Powers Federalism and the Protection of Rights Written by a team of experts drawn from academia and practice the Handbook provides Australian and international readers alike with a reliable source of knowledge understanding and insight into the Australian Constitution

Comparative Law and Jurisprudence in Namibia Samuel Kwesi Amoo,Tapiwa Victor Warikandwa,Kennedy Kariseb,2025-01-31 Comparative law examines the differences and similarities between various countries laws and legal systems across the world such as common civil and socialist laws Its significance has grown dramatically in the current era of internationalism populism economic globalization and democratization Despite its relevance Namibia lacks scholarly literature in comparative law Comparative Law and Jurisprudence in Namibia provides in depth understanding of the theoretical framework of different legal systems and of comparative law and contextualizes its application for the Namibian context particularly towards a unified legal system It addresses topics such as comparative law s conceptual framework the interplay between courts and comparative law and comparative law praxis or the practical application thereof The chapters span across all levels of comparativism and promote a multidisciplinary approach to discourse including altering Namibian legal education Futhermore the collection accelerates required legislative change in Namibia to guarantee a legal structure aligned with societal and constitutional imperatives in the twenty first century Corporate Finance for Lawyers Rolef de Weijts,Joost de Vries,Aart Jonkers,2023-02-14 Corporate Finance for Lawyers explores the intricate relationship between law and corporate finance Utilising the Financial Mindmap throughout chapters depict financial concepts by using colours and visualisations in a clear and intuitive manner Research Handbook on Jurilinguistics Anne Wagner,Aleksandra Matulewska,2023-10-06 This Research Handbook offers a comprehensive study of jurilinguistics that not only presents the latest international research findings among academics and practitioners but also provides a new approach to the phenomena and nature of communicative flexibility legal genres vulnerability of interlingual legal communication and the cultural landscape of legal translation The Regulation of Consumer Credit Sarah Brown,2019 This incisive book gives a comprehensive overview of the regulation of consumer credit in both the US and the UK It covers policy procedure and the dynamics of the consumer credit relationship to advocate for a balanced approach in achieving more effective consumer protection The Law and Legitimacy of Imposed Constitutions Richard Albert,Xenophon Contiades,Alkmene Fotiadou,2018-11-01 Constitutions are often seen as the product of the free will of a people exercising their constituent power This however is not always the case particularly when it comes to imposed constitutions In recent years there has been renewed interest in the idea of imposition in constitutional design but the literature does not yet provide a comprehensive resource to understand the meanings causes and consequences of an imposed constitution This volume examines the theoretical and practical questions emerging from what scholars have described as an imposed constitution A diverse group of contributors interrogates the theory forms and applications of imposed constitutions with the aim of refining our understanding of this variation on constitution making Divided into three parts this book first considers the conceptualization of imposed constitutions suggesting definitions or corrections to the definition of what exactly an imposed constitution is The contributors then go on to explore the various ways in which constitutions are and can be imposed The collection concludes by considering imposed constitutions that are currently in place in a number of polities worldwide problematizing the consequences their imposition has caused Cases are drawn from a broad range of countries with examples at both the national and supranational level This book addresses some of the most important issues discussed in contemporary constitutional law the relationship between constituent and constituted power the source of constitutional legitimacy the challenge of foreign and expert intervention and the role of comparative constitutional studies in constitution making The volume will be a valuable resource for those interested in the phenomenon of imposed constitutionalism as well as anyone interested in the current trends in the study of comparative constitutional law

The Future of Commercial Law Orkun Akseli, John Linarelli, 2020-04-16 The reform of commercial law through harmonisation unification codification and other means remains one of the most important projects in developing the institutional architecture for the global economy This edited collection engages with the challenges and contributes to a greater understanding of the problems faced by states international organisations and private sector actors in this ongoing reform project for commercial law The volume takes stock of the project to date and looks towards a restructuring of the agenda to deal with new challenges The primary aim of the collection is to understand the future of commercial law reform in a way that offers ideas and strategies for innovation as well as in methodologies for project selection and evaluation In so doing the collection informs the debate on the global reform of commercial law and will be of interest not only to academics but also to those involved in the reform of commercial law around the world The volume collects papers presented at the UK Society of Legal Scholars Annual Seminar 2017

The Interconnection of the EU Regulations Brussels I Recast and Rome I Christoph Schmon, 2020-03-17 This book deals with the interconnection between the Brussels I Recast and Rome I Regulations and addresses the question of uniform interpretation A consistent understanding of scope and provisions is suggested by the preamble of the Rome I Regulation Without doubt it is fair to presume that the same terms bear the same meaning throughout the Regulations The author takes a closer look at the Regulations systems guiding principles and their balance of flexibility and legal certainty He starts from the premise that such analysis should prove particularly rewarding as both legal acts have their specific DNA The Brussels I Recast Regulation has a procedural focus when it governs the allocation of jurisdiction and the free circulation of judgments The multilateral rules under the Rome I Regulation by contrast are animated by conflict of laws methods and focus on the delimitation of legal systems This fourth volume in the Short Studies in Private International Law Series is primarily aimed at legal academics in private international law and advanced students

But it should also prove an intriguing read for legal practitioners in international litigation Christoph Schmon is a legal expert in the fields of Private International Law Consumer Law and Digital Rights After serving in research positions at academic institutes in Vienna and London he focused on EU policy and law making He is appointed expert of advisory groups to the EU Commission

Transnational Constitution Making Alicia Pastor y Camarasa, 2024-06-14 This book examines the largely neglected but crucial role of transnational actors in democratic constitution making The writing or rewriting of constitutions is usually a key moment in democratic transitions But how exactly does this take place Most contemporary comparative constitutional literature draws on the concept of constituent power the power of the people to address this moment But what this overlooks this book argues is the important role of external transnational actors who tend to play a crucial role in the process Drawing on sociolegal methodologies but informed by new legal realism this book develops a new theoretical framework for examining the involvement of such actors in constitution making Empirically grounded the book uncovers a more comprehensive picture of how constitution making unfolds on the ground Illuminating the power dynamics at play during the legal process it reveals not only the wide range of external actors involved but also the continuity between decolonisation and post Cold War constitution making This book the first to provide an in depth examination of external actor involvement in constitution making will appeal to scholars of constitutional law sociolegal studies law and development and transitional justice

The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Law Mathias Reimann, Reinhard Zimmermann, 2019 This second edition provides a wide ranging and highly diverse survey as well as a critical assessment of comparative law at the beginning of the 21st century In the current era of globalisation this discipline is more relevant than ever both on an academic and practical level The book contains forty eight essays each of which provides an accessible original and critical account of comparative law in its respective area Each essay also includes a short bibliography referencing the definitive works in the field Three sections divide the essays into the development of comparative law the major approaches to comparative law and the status of such studies over a range of subject areas

Legal Geography Tayanah O'Donnell, Daniel F. Robinson, Josephine Gillespie, 2019-12-06 This book is the first legal geography book to explicitly engage in method It complements this by also bringing together different perspectives on the emerging school of legal geography It explores human environment interactions and showcases distinct environmental legal geography scholarship Legal Geography Perspectives and Methods is an innovative book concerned with a new relational and material way of examining our legal spatial world With chapters examining natural resource management Indigenous knowledge and political ecology scholarship the text introduces legal geography's modes of analysis and critique The book explores topics such as Indigenous environmental rights the impacts of extractive industries mediation of climate change food animal and plant patents fossil fuels mining and coastal environments based on empirical jurisdictional and methodological insights from Australia New Zealand and the Asia Pacific to demonstrate how space and place are invoked in legal processes and contestations and the methods that may be employed to explore these processes and contestations This book examines the role of legal geographies in the 21st century beyond the simple law in action and it will thus appeal to students of socio legal studies human geography environmental studies environmental policy as well as politics and international relations

On the Fourth Industrial Revolution: Legal Perspectives from Germany and South Africa Thomas M.J. Möllers, Kathleen Van der Linde, 2024-10-30 Based on collaboration between the law faculties of the University of Augsburg and the University of Johannesburg this book focuses on legal developments relating to the Fourth Industrial Revolution in South Africa and Germany and the European Union more broadly Written in the aftermath of the Covid 19 pandemic which has given impetus to digital and other technology driven innovations it pays particular attention to the aspects of digitalisation artificial intelligence and data protection in various contexts including international sales law labour law medical law and environmental law The chapters reflect critically on legal and other developments to determine their appropriateness impact and long term viability in the digital age Other significant topics covered in this book include human rights in an increasingly globalised world of business climate change and the war between Russia and Ukraine Focusing on legal aspects and applicable frameworks the chapters dealing with these topics clearly encourage an appreciation for the ideals of accountability fairness peace and security Undoubtedly this book is a timely and appropriate collection of research on fundamental developments and problems facing our world today It is recommended reading for those interested in legal perspectives on important developments in the era of the Fourth Industrial Revolution

Jurists and Legal Science in the History of Roman Law Fara Nasti, Aldo Schiavone, 2021-10-10 This book provides a new approach to the study of the History of Roman Law It collects the first results of the European Research Council Project Scriptores iuris Romani dedicated to a new collection of the texts of Roman jurisprudence highlighting important methodological issues together with innovative reconstructions of the profiles of some ancient jurists and works Jurists were great protagonists of the history of Rome both as producers and interpreters of law since the Republican Age and as collaborators of the principes during the Empire Nevertheless their role has been underestimated by modern historians and legal experts for reasons connected to the developments of Modern Law in England and in Continental Europe

This book aims to address this imbalance. It presents an advanced paradigm in considering the most important aspects of Roman law, the Justinian Digesta and other juridical late antique anthologies. The work offers an historiographic model which overturns current perspectives and makes way for a different path for legal and historical studies. Unlike existing literature, the focus is not on the Justinian Codification but on the individualities of ancient Roman Jurists. As such, it presents the actual legal thought of its experts and authors, the ancient iuris prudentes. The book will be of interest to researchers and academics in Classics, Ancient History, History of Law, and contemporary legal studies.

Competition Law's Innovation Factor Viktoria H S E Robertson, 2020-02-06. In recent years, market definition has come under attack as an analytical tool of competition law. Scholars have increasingly questioned its usefulness and feasibility. That criticism comes into sharper relief in dynamic, innovation-driven markets which do not correspond to the static markets on which the concept of the relevant market was modelled. This book explores that controversy from a comparative legal perspective, taking into account both EU competition and US antitrust law. It examines the manifold ways in which courts and competition authorities in the EU and US have factored innovation-related considerations into market delineation, covering innovative product markets, product differentiation, future markets, issues going beyond market definition proper, such as innovation competition, innovation markets, and potential competition, intellectual property rights, innovative aftermarkets, and multi-sided platforms. This book finds that going forward, the role of market definition in dynamic contexts needs to focus on its function of market characterisation rather than on the assessment of market power.

Legal Culture, Legality and the Determination of the Grounds of Judicial Review of Administrative Action in England and Australia Voraphol Malsukhum, 2021-07-01. This book presents a navigating framework of legal culture and legality to facilitate a comprehensive understanding of the English and Australian determination of the grounds of judicial review. This book facilitates a tangible process of how and why jurisdictional error, jurisdictional fact, proportionality, and substantive legitimate expectations are debatable in English law while they are either completely rejected or firmly entrenched in Australian law. This book argues that these differences are not just random. Legality is not just a fig leaf but is profoundly rooted in legal systems' legal culture; hence, it dictates the way in which courts empower, justify, constrain, or limit the scope of judicial review. This book presents evidence that courts differ in legal systems and apply diverse ways to determine the scope of judicial review based on their deep understanding of legality which is embedded in the legal culture of their legal system. This book uses comparative methodology and develops this framework between English and Australian law. Although obvious and important, this book presents a kind of examination that has never been undertaken in this depth and detail before.

Multi-Party and Multi-Contract Arbitration in the Construction Industry Dimitar Kondev, 2017-04-17. Multi-Party and Multi-Contract Arbitration in the Construction Industry provides the first detailed review of multi-party arbitration in the international construction sector. Highly practical in approach, the detailed interpretation and assessment of the arbitration of multi-party disputes will facilitate understanding and decision making by arbitrators clients and construction contractors The Hague Judgments Convention and Commonwealth Model Law

Abubakri Yekini, 2021-08-12 This book undertakes a systematic analysis of the 2019 Hague Judgments Convention the 2005 Hague Choice of Court Convention 2005 and the 2017 Commonwealth Model Law on recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Judgments from a pragmatic perspective The book builds on the concept of pragmatism in private international law within the context of recognition and enforcement of judgments It demonstrates the practical application of legal pragmatism by setting up a toolbox pragmatic goals and methods that will assist courts and policymakers in developing an effective and efficient judgments enforcement scheme at national bilateral and multilateral levels Practitioners national courts policymakers academics students and litigants will benefit from the book s comparative approach using case law from the United Kingdom and other leading Commonwealth States the United States and the Court of Justice of the European Union The book also provides interesting findings from the empirical research on the refusal of recognition and enforcement in the UK and the Commonwealth statutory registration schemes respectively
