This is an exploration of the vital and rapidly evolving world of Commercial Dance, tracing the evolution and merging of Hip Hop, Club, and Jazz dance styles from the music videos of the early 1980s to today's huge influence on pop music and dance in a multi-media culture. Chapters including Iconic Moments and Main Movers contextualise and analyse culturally significant works and choreographers. With direct contributions from an international array of industry-leading dancers, choreographers, and creatives, including JaQuel Knight, Beyoncé's choreographer Rich Tone Talauega, Madonna, Michael Jackson collaborators Rebbi Rosie, Rihanna's dancer Dean Lee, Janet Jackson's choreographer and Kiel Tulin, BLACKPINK's choreographer, this book shines a light on the creatives in the Commercial Dance industry who have made significant impacts not just on the world of dance but on popular culture itself. Chapters discussing dance history, copyright law, inclusivity, and dance class culture, as well as additional contributions from dance scholars, enable this book to give credence to Commercial Dance as a legitimate academic area of study. This is a complete and comprehensive textbook for all dance students at any level of study on college, university, or conservatory courses. Black TV Bethonie Butler, 2023-12-05

With iconic imagery and engrossing text, Black TV is the first book of its kind to celebrate the groundbreaking, influential, and often underappreciated shows centered on Black people and their experiences from the last fifty years. Over the past decade, television has seen an explosion of acclaimed and influential debut storytellers, including Issa Rae, Insecure, Donald Glover, Atlanta, and Michaela Coel, I May Destroy You. This golden age of Black television would not be possible without the actors, showrunners, and writers that worked for decades to give voice to the Black experience in America. Written by veteran TV reporter Bethonie Butler, Black TV tells the stories behind the pioneering series that led to this moment, celebrating the laughs, the drama, and the performances we've loved over the last fifty years. Beginning with Julia, the groundbreaking sitcom that made Diahann Carroll the first Black woman to lead a prime-time network series, as something other than a servant, she explores the 1960s and 1970s as an era of unprecedented representation with shows like Soul Train, Roots, and The Jeffersons. She unpacks the increasingly nuanced comedies of the 1980s, from 227 to A Different World, and how they paved the way for the '90s Black sitcom boom that gave us The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air and Living Single. Butler also looks at the visionary comedians from Flip Wilson to the Wayans siblings to Dave Chappelle, and connects all these achievements to the latest breakthroughs in television with showrunners like Shonda Rhimes, Ava DuVernay, and Quinta Brunson leading the charge. With dozens of photographs reminding readers of memorable moments and scenes, Butler revisits breakout performances and important guest appearances, delivering some overdue accolades along the way. So put on your Hillman sweatshirt, make some popcorn and get ready for a dyn o mite retrospective of the most groundbreaking and entertaining shows in television history Dancing Black, Dancing White Julie Malnig, 2023 Dancing Black Dancing White Rock n Roll Race and Youth Culture of the 1950s and Early 1960s offers a new look at the highly popular phenomenon of the televised teen dance program These teen shows were incubators of new styles of social and popular dance and both reflected and shaped pressing social issues of the day Often referred to as dance parties the televised teen dance shows helped cultivate a nascent youth culture in the post World War II era The youth culture depicted on the shows however was primarily white Black teenagers certainly had a youth culture of their own but the injustice was glaring Black culture was not always in evident display on the airwaves as television like the nation at large was deeply segregated and appealed to a primarily white homogenous audience The crux of the book then is twofold to explore how social and popular dance styles were created and disseminated within the new technology of television and to investigate how the shows both reflected and re affirmed the racial politics and attitudes of the time The 1950s was a watershed decade for American culture and dance The era witnessed the ascendancy of rock and roll music and recorded sound the rise of the teenager as a marketing demographic the beginnings of television and a new phase of the country s struggle with race The story of televised teen dance told here is about Black and white teenagers wanting to dance to rock n roll music despite the barriers placed on their ability to do so It is also a story that fuses issues of race morality and sexuality Dancing Black Dancing White weaves together these elements to tell two stories that of the different experiences of Black and white adolescents and their desires to have a space of their own where they could be seen heard appreciated and understood Remixing the Hip-Hop Narrative James Barber, Christian Büschges, Dianne Violeta Mausfeld, Britta Sweers, 2024-09-03 Although hip hop is now a well established global music genre and cultural form its history and current impact have not yet been sufficiently studied The interdisciplinary contributions to this volume address hip hop s historical and regional struggles for representation of race gender generation place and language as well as the tension between authenticity and commercialization Contributors offer approaches to historicizing hip hop culture and present new theoretical perspectives and methodological tools for addressing hip hop s global impact This volume targets not only scholars and students but also resonates with recent public debates about identity politics and cultural appropriation
