South African Army Application Forms 2016:

"ECEG2016-Proceedings of 16th European Conference on e-Government ECEG 2016 " Mitja De Man,Tina Juki,2016-06-02 South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heinecken,2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country's new security political and social environment since 1994. In South Africa's changed political state how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy. This book presents an overview of the security environment how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement force preparation force employment and force sustainability. The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy recruitment and retention military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged HIV AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness. In closing the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation spelling out some lessons learned. The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil military relations of countries around the world.

Defence Diplomacy and National Security Strategy Ian Liebenberg,Dirk Kruijt,Shrikant Paranjpe,2020-04-20 The post cold war era presented security challenges that at one level are a continuation of the cold war era at another level these phenomena manifested in new forms. Whether the issues of economics and trade transfer of technologies challenges of intervention or humanitarian crisis the countries of the South previously pejoratively labelled Third World or developing countries have continued to address these challenges within the framework of their capabilities and concerns. The volume explores defence diplomacies national security challenges and strategies dynamics of diplomatic manoeuvres and strategic resource management of Latin American southern African and Asian countries.

General Jan Smuts And his First World War in Africa (1914-1917) David Brock Katz,2022-08-24 An engaging well written and meticulously researched military biography. Tim Stapleton Professor Department of History University of Calgary. Jan Smuts grabbed the opportunity to realise his ambition of a Greater South Africa when the First World War ushered in a final scramble for Africa. He set his sights firmly northward upon the German colonies of South West Africa and East Africa. Smuts's abilities as a general have been much denigrated by his contemporaries and later historians but he was no armchair soldier. He first learned his soldier's craft under General Koos de la Rey and General Louis Botha during the South African War 1899-1902. He emerged from that conflict immersed in Boer manoeuvre doctrine. After forming the Union Defence Force in 1912 Smuts played an integral part in the German South West African campaign in 1915. Placed in command of the Allied forces in East Africa in 1916 he led a mixed bag of South Africans and imperial troops against the legendary Paul von Lettow Vorbeck and his Schutztruppen. His penchant for manoeuvre warfare and mounted infantry freed most of the vast German territory from Lettow Vorbeck's grip. General Jan Smuts and his First World War in Africa provides a long overdue reassessment of Smuts's generalship and his role in furthering the strategic aims of South Africa and the British Empire during this era. Foreign Policy in Post-Apartheid South Africa Adekeye Adebajo, Kudrat Virk, 2017-12-18 South Africa is the most industrialized power in Africa. It was rated the continent's largest economy in 2016 and is the only African member of the G20. It is also the only strategic partner of the EU in Africa. Yet despite being so strategically and economically significant, there is little scholarship that focuses on South Africa as a regional hegemon. This book provides the first comprehensive assessment of South Africa's post-Apartheid foreign policy. Over its 23 chapters and with contributions from established African, Western, Asian, and American scholars as well as diplomats and analysts, the book examines the current pattern of the country's foreign relations in impressive detail. The geographic and thematic coverage is extensive, including chapters on the domestic imperatives of South Africa's foreign policy, peace-making, defence, and security, bilateral relations in Southern, Central, West, Eastern, and North Africa, bilateral relations with the US, China, Britain, France, and Japan, the country's key external multilateral relations with the UN, the BRICS, economic grouping, the African Caribbean and Pacific Group (ACP), as well as the EU and the World Trade Organization (WTO). An essential resource for researchers, the book will be relevant to the fields of area studies, foreign policy, history, international relations, international law, security studies, political economy, and development studies.

Robert Mugabe Sue Onslow, Martin Plaut, 2018-03-05 Zimbabwe's President Robert Mugabe sharply divides opinion and embodies the contradictions of his country's history and political culture. As a symbol of African liberation and a stalwart opponent of white rule, he was respected and revered by many. This heroic status contrasted sharply in the eyes of his rivals and victims with repeated cycles of gross human rights violations. Mugabe presided over the destruction of a vibrant society, capital flight, and mass emigration precipitated by the policies of his government, resulting in his demonic image in Western media. This timely biography addresses the coup led by some of Mugabe's closest associates that forced his resignation after thirty-seven years in power. Sue Onslow and Martin Plaut explain Mugabe's formative experiences as a child and young man, his role as an admired Afro-nationalist leader in the struggle against white settler rule, and his evolution into a political manipulator and survivalist. They also address the emergence of political opposition to his leadership and the uneasy period of coalition government. Ultimately, they reveal the complexity of the man who stamped his personality on Zimbabwe's first four decades of independence. Transition Towards Gender Equality Sonja Gierse-Arsten, 2024-01-10

Worldwide Namibia ranks high regarding gender equality. However, many women are intimidated by violence perpetrated by men. This book is based on a social anthropological field research in the small town of Outjo situated in Northern Central Namibia over a period of 14 months. Gender is learnt, lived, and reproduced in a societal frame. Violence against women too is perpetrated by men in a societal context. By using mainly qualitative research methods, Sonja Gierse-Arsten looks at male and female perspectives to reach a holistic understanding and to provide a basis for sustainable changes towards equal gender relations. She traces the transition from a hierarchical gender system during colonial times to the aspired equal gender relations in present Namibia. Current challenges characterised by poverty and great economic inequalities form the framework in which gender is performed and violence perpetrated. This study offers inspirations to re-think gender to reach substantive gender equality and to overcome the normalisation of violence.

Women and the Military Ruth Margolies Beitler, Sarah M. Gerstein, 2021-04-07. This addition to the Women and Society around the World series explores the roles, challenges and accomplishments of women in the military in countries across the globe. Around the world, millions of men serve in their countries' militaries, be it on land, on the seas or in the air. But while many militaries have opened all positions to women, even those on the front lines, others remain closed. Countries have cited a number of reasons for their policies, including changing views of women and the military, conscription and economic and demographic trends. Written by a professor of comparative politics at the United States Military Academy at West Point and an active duty army major, this book seeks to provide an understanding of women's roles in militaries around the world. The book is organized by region, exploring societal and cultural views of masculinity and war, as well as factors influencing changing views of women and the military, including conscription and economic and demographic trends. Topics also include sexual harassment, recruitment and views on women's physicality and strength. High school students, undergraduates and general readers will find this cross-cultural study a fascinating and important resource.

Hunters among Farmers Akira Takada, 2023-08-29. Through moving life histories, Akira Takada gives the Xun of north-central Namibia a voice in their own history. In contrast to other marginalised San minorities, the Xun foster co-operative relationships with their neighbours, the Ovambo, and with the state. In the face of radical social changes over the past century, they have maintained traditional hunting and gathering as a backstop but also sold their skills and labour, acquired their own farms and livestock and enriched their child-rearing practices in changing ecological conditions. Central to their identity and resilience are their kinship and naming practices, which preserve their ethnic cohesion while promoting relationships with other groups. Contributing to an established literature on the San, Takada's book will allow detailed regional comparison on the Kung-speaking groups of northern Namibia. Charming sketches from his notebooks give an intimate view of the anthropologist in the field.

Land Warfare since 1860 Jeremy Black, 2018-08-10. This cogent global history traces the evolution of land warfare since the start of the Crimean War. Jeremy Black argues that although it has always been critical to the outcome of conflicts, worldwide land warfare has become undervalued in comparison to air power in modern military thinking. In practice, land warfare was crucial during the American Civil War, the two world wars and the conflicts of the Cold War. Indeed, the revival of great power confrontation has led to an urgent need to re-examine the entire contemporary period. Looking to the future, the book shows convincingly that we must consider the nature of the military for non-state actors as well as for the major powers. Ultimately, Black contends, there is no substitute for the control over territory provided by boots on the ground

Stopping the Spies Jane Duncan, 2018-06-01 Is South Africa on its way to becoming a surveillance state and will it need a whistleblower In 2013 former National Security Agency NSA contractor Edward Snowden leaked secret documents revealing that state agencies like the NSA had spied on the communications of millions of innocent citizens International outrage resulted but the Snowden documents revealed only the tip of the surveillance iceberg Apart from insisting on their rights to tap into communications more and more states are placing citizens under surveillance tracking their movements and transactions with public and private institutions The state is becoming like a one way mirror where it can see more of what its citizens do and say while citizens see less and less of what the state does owing to high levels of secrecy around surveillance In this book Jane Duncan assesses the relevance of Snowden s revelations for South Africa In doing so she questions the extent to which South Africa is becoming a surveillance society governed by a surveillance state Duncan challenges members of civil society to be concerned about and to act on the ever expanding surveillance capacities of the South African state Is surveillance used for the democratic purpose of making people safer or is it being used for the repressive purpose of social control especially of those considered to be politically threatening to ruling interests She explores the forms of collective action needed to ensure that unaccountable surveillance does not take place and examines what does and does not work when it comes to developing organised responses

Othello William Shakespeare, 2018-04-05 This third edition of Othello offers a completely new introduction by Christina Luckyj providing readers with a nuanced understanding of early modern theatre and culture and demonstrating how careful attention to Shakespeare's language staging and dramaturgy can open up fresh interpretations of the play Tracing critical and performance trends up to the present day Luckyj shows how the drama taps into contemporary cultural paradoxes surrounding blackness marriage and politics to create a powerful double perspective illuminating the creative and destructive power of stories and of human love itself Supplemented by an updated reading list and extensive illustrations this edition also features revised commentary notes offering the very best in contemporary criticism of this great tragedy

Military Women in World Cinema Deborah A. Deacon, Stacy Fowler, 2023-08-10 From British soldier Flora Sandes to the famed World War II Night Witches of the Soviet Air Force women across the globe have stepped up to defend their countries during every major and minor conflict of the twentieth century and filmmakers have long attempted to capture their stories This book analyzes these military women's portrayals in world cinema examining movies from Israel the United Kingdom Italy the United States Japan and others It includes theatrical releases direct to video productions and made for television films Chapters organize films by decade produced and topics covered include the women's sexuality maternal and marital status leadership skills actual jobs performed and the accuracy of depiction The book also discusses how each film reflects the contemporary social issues of the nation in which it was produced

University Education, Controversy and Democratic Citizenship Nuraan Davids, Yusef Waghid, 2020-11-16 This book explores the role of the university in upholding democratic values for societal change The chapters advocate for the moral virtue of democratic patriotism the editors and contributors argue that universities as institutions of higher learning can encourage the creation of critical and patriotic citizens The book suggests that non violence tolerance and peaceful co existence ought to manifest through pedagogical university actions on the basis of educators desire to cultivate reflectiveness criticality and deliberative inquiry in and through their academic programmes In a way universities can respond more positively to the violence on our campuses and in society if public and controversial issues were to be addressed through an education for democratic citizenship and human rights

Challenging the United Nations Peace and Security Agenda in Africa Dawn Nagar, 2021-09-29 This book concerns the United Nations peacemaking peacekeeping peace building and post conflict reconstruction efforts in Africa from 1960 to 2021 Succinctly discussed are historic and contemporary peace security and economic engagements within 18 countries spanning eight African regions the Great Lakes the Economic Community of Central African States East Africa the Horn of Africa North Africa the Sahel Region West Africa and Southern Africa The book develops a neo realist and imperialist critique that discusses how resource rich conflict ridden states have become easy targets for capitalists terrorists and transnational crime aligned to geostrategic parochial interests Critically argued is that endogenous economic growth factors if applied effectively can achieve both peace and security and meet the Global Sustainable Development Goals Such efforts require constructive engagement with the five permanent members of the UN Security Council China France Russia the UK and the US However the book contends that the cornerstone of multilateral engagement involves Africa s 55 states and the African Union s three major pillars the Peace and Security Council the African Governance Architecture and the Post Conflict Reconstruction Development Centre which have the ability to move resource rich conflict ridden states out of transnational crime and poverty This book offers wide ranging analyses of contemporary African diplomacy and a compelling critique of UN peacekeeping efforts in Africa which resonates to scholars of international relations peace and conflict studies and African politics

Protest Publics Nina Belyaeva,Victor Albert,Dmitry G. Zaytsev,2019-05-10 This book examines the waves of protest that broke out in the 2010s as the collective actions of self organized publics Drawing on theories of publics counter publics and developing an analytical framework that allows the comparison of different country cases this volume explores the transformation from spontaneous demonstrations driven by civic outrage against injustice to more institutionalized forms of protest Presenting comparative research and case studies on e g the Portuguese Generation in Trouble the Arab Spring in Northern Africa or Occupy Wall Street in the USA the authors explore how protest publics emerge and evolve in very different ways from creating many small citizen groups focused on particular projects to more articulated political agendas for both state and society These protest publics have provoked and legitimized concrete socio political changes altering the balance of power in specific political spaces and in some cases generating profound moments of instability that can lead both to revolutions and to peaceful transformations of political institutions The authors argue that this recent wave of protests is driven by a new type of social actor self organized publics In some cases these protest publics can lead to democratic reform and redistributive policies while in others they can produce destabilization ethnic and nationalist populism and authoritarianism This book will help readers to better understand how seemingly spontaneous public events and protests evolve into meaningful well structured collective action and come to shape political processes in diverse regions of the globe

Climate Change Epistemologies in Southern Africa Jörn Ahrens,Ernst Halbmayer,2023-05-26 This book investigates the social and cultural dimensions of climate change in Southern Africa focusing on how knowledge about climate change is conceived and conveyed Despite contributing very little to the global production of emissions the African continent looks set to be the hardest hit by climate change Adopting a decolonial perspective this book argues that knowledge and discourse about climate change has largely disregarded African epistemologies leading to inequalities in knowledge systems Only by considering regionally specific forms of conceptualizing perceiving and responding to climate change can these global problems be tackled First exploring African epistemologies of climate change the book then goes on to the social impacts of climate change matters of climate justice and finally institutional change and adaptation Providing important insights into the social and cultural perception and communication of climate change in Africa this book will be of interest to researchers from across the fields of African studies sociology anthropology philosophy political science climate change and geography South Sudans Injustice System Rachel Ibreck,2019-08-30 An outstanding feat based on in depth research in a difficult setting this book uncovers the dysfunctions of law and the bravery of South Sudan s activists struggling for justice Mark Fathi Massoud University of California Santa Cruz Annual Report South Africa.
