U.S. Army Campaigns of the Civil War: The Civil War in the West, 1863 Andrew N. Morris, The Civil War in the West 1863 by Andrew N Morris is the latest addition to the Center of Military History s U S Army Campaigns of the Civil War series In 1863 Union and Confederate forces fought for control of Chattanooga a key rail center The Confederates were victorious at nearby Chickamauga in September However renewed fighting in Chattanooga that November provided Union troops a victory control of the city and drove the Confederates south into Georgia The Union success left its armies poised to invade the Deep South the following year

The Palgrave Handbook of Peacebuilding in Africa Tony Karbo, Kudrat Virk, 2018-01-30 This handbook offers a critical assessment of the African agenda for conflict prevention peacemaking peacekeeping and peacebuilding the challenges and opportunities facing Africa's regional organisations in their efforts towards building sustainable peace on the continent and the role of external actors including the United Nations Britain France and South Asian troop contributing countries In so doing it revisits the late Ali Mazrui's concept of Pax Africana calling on Africans to take responsibility for peace and security on their own continent The creation of the African Union in 2002 was an important step towards realising this ambition and has led to the development of a new continental architecture for more robust conflict management But as the volume's authors show the quest for Pax Africana faces challenges Combining thematic analyses and case studies this book will be of interest to both scholars and policymakers working on peace security and governance issues in Africa

Panic City Martin J. Murray, 2020-03-10 Despite the end of white minority rule and the transition to parliamentary democracy Johannesburg remains haunted by its tortured history of racial segregation and burdened by enduring inequalities in income opportunities for stable work and access to decent housing Under these circumstances Johannesburg has become one of the most dangerous cities in the world where the yawning gap between the haves and have nots has fueled a turn toward redistribution through crime While wealthy residents have retreated into heavily fortified gated communities and upscale security estates the less affluent have sought refuge in retrofitting their private homes into safe houses closing off public streets and hiring the services of private security companies to protect their suburban neighborhoods Panic City is an exploration of urban fear and its impact on the city's evolving siege architecture the transformation of policing and obsession with security that has fueled unprecedented private consumption of protection services Martin Murray analyzes the symbiotic relationship between public law enforcement agencies private security companies and neighborhood associations wherein buyers and sellers of security have reinvented ways of maintaining outdated segregation practices that define the urban poor as suspects

The Economics of Defense Industry Thomas-Durell Young, 2023-10-17 This book on the economics of defence industry assesses a series of historical and contemporary case studies that consistently demonstrate the need for governments to recognise and thereafter factor the financial needs of a narrow industrial sector that is capital intensive technologically advanced and that requires a highly skilled labour force Since the end of the cold war Western governments have systematically reduced financial support to their domestic defence industry and have seemingly ignored planning and funding industrial mobilisation In all cases government policy has been to encourage industries to consolidate capacity to become financially viable in a sector that has seen diminished demand The 2022 Russian invasion of Ukraine has caused Western governments to reassess their previous assumptions Efforts to increase industrial capacity have been met with the iron laws of economics whereby businesses need to show return on investments The chapters in this volume posit that efforts to rationalise industrial capacity and innovation to meet short term financial efficiencies inevitably results in limited expensive and long delays in increased production in times of international crisis This book serves as an essential guide for academics researchers and students interested in defence economics industrial economics international relations and industrial policy The chapters in this book were originally published in various issues of Defense Security Analysis

Simoes, 2019-07-04 Narrative Psychology and Vygotsky in Dialogue Jill Bradbury, 2019-09-06 This book draws together two domains of psychological theory Vygotsky's cultural historical theory of cognition and narrative theories of identity to offer a way of rethinking the human subject as embodied relational and temporal A dialogue between these two ostensibly disparate and contested theoretical trajectories provides a new vantage point from which to explore questions of personal and political change In a world of deepening inequalities and increasing economic precarity the demand for free decolonised quality education as articulated by the South African Student Movement and in many other contexts around the world is disrupting established institutional practices and reinvigorating possibilities for change This context provokes new lines of hopeful thought and critical reflection on discontinuities across historical time theories of social and psychological developmental processes and the practices of intergenerational life particularly in the domain of education for the making of emancipatory futures This is essential reading for academics and students interested in Vygotskian and narrative theory and critical psychology as well as those interested in the politics and praxis of higher education Disaster and Development in the Horn of Africa John Sorenson, 2016-07-27 The Horn of Africa has suffered repeated disasters wars drought famine mass refugee movements and environmental decline This book explains the historical and political background to these crises and outlines the prospects for development in the region Experts on the Horn cover a broad range of topics including ethnic conflict gender and refugees food security the survival of pastoralism the future of independent Eritrea operations of intelligence agencies and the possibilities for regional cooperation Patterns of Sustaining Peace Julia Leib, 2024-09-26 This book explores how to establish peace in societies recovering from large scale armed conflicts by introducing the sustaining peace scale as a continuous measure for peacebuilding success Drawing on an extensive data collection of peacebuilding episodes over almost three decades the author analyses the impact of four peacebuilding practices international commitment power sharing security sector reform and transitional justice Having established the framework the author applies it to the peacebuilding processes in Sierra Leone and South Africa An important contribution to the literature on successful peacebuilding this book will be essential reading for peacebuilding scholars and practitioners

South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heineken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country's new security political and social environment since 1994 In South Africa's changed political state how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy This book presents an overview of the security environment how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement force preparation force employment and force sustainability The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy recruitment and retention military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged HIV AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness In closing the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation spelling out some lessons learned The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil military relations of countries around the world

Stopping the Spies Jane Duncan, 2018-06-01 Is South Africa on its way to becoming a surveillance state and will it need a whistleblower In 2013 former National Security Agency NSA contractor Edward Snowden leaked secret documents revealing that state agencies like the NSA had spied on the communications of millions of innocent citizens International outrage resulted but the Snowden documents revealed only the tip of the surveillance iceberg Apart from insisting on their rights to tap into communications more and more states are placing citizens under surveillance tracking their movements and transactions with public and private institutions The state is becoming like a one way mirror where it can see more of what its citizens do and say while citizens see less and less of what the state does owing to high levels of secrecy around surveillance In this book Jane Duncan assesses the relevance of Snowden's revelations for South Africa In doing so she questions the extent to which South Africa is becoming a surveillance society governed by a surveillance state Duncan challenges members of civil society to be concerned about and to act on the ever expanding surveillance capacities of the South African state Is surveillance used for the democratic purpose of making people safer or is it being used for the repressive purpose of social control especially of those considered to be politically threatening to ruling interests She explores the forms of collective action needed to ensure that unaccountable surveillance does not take place and examines what does and does not work when it comes to developing organised responses

Interior Provocations Anca I.

Lasc, Deborah Schneiderman, Keena Suh, Karin Tehve, Alexa Griffith Winton, Karyn Zieve, 2020-12-17 Interior Provocations History Theory and Practice of Autonomous Interiors addresses the broad cultural historical and theoretical implications of interiors beyond their conventionally defined architectural boundaries With provocative contributions from leading and emerging historians theorists and design practitioners the book is rooted in new scholarship that expands traditional relationships between architecture and interiors and that reflects the latest theoretical developments in the fields of interior design history and practice This collection contains diverse case studies from the late eighteenth century to the twenty first century including Alexander Pope s Memorial Garden Design Indaba and Robin Evans It is an essential read for researchers practitioners and students of interior design at all levels

Dare Not Linger Nelson Mandela, Mandla Langa, 2017-10-24 A memoir of Mandela s time in office as the first president of a democratic South Africa completed and expanded with his personal notes and speeches I have discovered the secret that after climbing a great hill one only finds that there are many more hills to climb I have taken a moment here to rest to steal a view of the glorious vista that surrounds me to look back on the distance I have come But I can rest only for a moment for with freedom comes responsibilities and I dare not linger for my long walk is not ended In 1994 Nelson Mandela became the first president of a democratic South Africa From the outset he was committed to serving only a single five year term During his presidency he and his government ensured that all of South Africa s citizens became equal before the law and he laid the foundation for turning a country riven by centuries of colonialism and apartheid into a fully functioning democracy Dare Not Linger is the story of Mandela s presidential years drawing heavily on the memoir he began to write as he prepared to leave office but was unable to finish Now the acclaimed South African writer Mandla Langa has completed the task using Mandela s unfinished draft detailed notes that Mandela made as events were unfolding and a wealth of unseen archival material With a prologue by Mandela s widow Gra Machel the result is a vivid and often inspirational account of Mandela s presidency and the creation of a new democracy It tells the story of a country in transition and the challenges Mandela faced as he strove to make his vision for a liberated South Africa a reality Underneath the history that has been made there is a human being who chose hope over fear progress over the prisons of the past Even as he became a legend to know the man Nelson Mandela is to respect him even more Barack Obama A rare human being who in freeing himself of his demons also became free to give his extraordinarily leadership to his country and the world Bill Clinton A critically important document as the principal firsthand record of Mandela s tumultuous time in office and the often ingenious measures he took to bring about peace the book contains many such practical lessons in governance Essential to students of Mandela s political career as well as of modern African history Kirkus Reviews

Papers , 1924 China's Relations with Africa Joshua Eisenman, David H. Shinn, 2023-08-01 Since Xi Jinping s accession to power in 2012 nearly every aspect of China s relations with Africa has grown dramatically Beijing has increased the share of resources it devotes to African countries expanding military cooperation technological investment and educational and cultural programs as well as extending its political influence This book examines the full scope of contemporary political and security relations between China and Africa David H Shinn and Joshua Eisenman not only explain the specific tactics and methods that Beijing uses to build its strategic relations with African political and military elites but also contextualize and interpret them within China's larger geostrategy They argue that the priorities of Chinese leaders including the conflation of threats to the Communist Party with threats to the country a growing emphasis on relations in the Global South and a focus on countering U S hegemony have combined to elevate Africa's importance among policy makers in Beijing Ranging from diplomacy and propaganda to arms sales and space cooperation from increasingly frequent People's Liberation Army Navy port calls in Africa to the rising number of African students studying in China this book marshals extensive and compelling qualitative and quantitative evidence of the deepening ties between China and Africa Drawing on two decades of systematic data and hundreds of surveys and in person interviews Shinn and Eisenman shed new light on the state of China Africa relations today and consider what the future may hold
