William F. Pinar

Testing Coordinator Manual For Leap Summer School:

A Praxis of Presence in Curriculum Theory William F. Pinar, 2022-08-31 Building on his seminal methodological contribution to the field currere here William F Pinar posits a praxis of presence as a unique form of individual engagement against current cultural crises in education Bringing together a series of updated essays articles and new writings to form this comprehensive volume Pinar first demonstrates how a praxis of presence furthers the study of curriculum as lived experience to overcome self enclosure restart lived and historical time and understand technology through a process of regression progression analysis and synthesis Pinar then further illustrates how this practice can inform curricular responses to countering presentism narcissism and techno utopianism in educators work with digital natives Ultimately this book offers researchers scholars and teacher educators in the fields of curriculum theory the sociology of education and educational policy more broadly the analytical and methodological tools by which to advance their understanding of currere and in doing so allows them to tackle the main cultural issues that educators face today Alternatives to Privatizing Public Education and Curriculum Daniel Ness, Stephen J. Farenga, 2017-03-16 Through conversations in honor of Dale D Johnson this book takes a critical view of the monoculture in curriculum and policy that has developed in education with the increase of federal funding and privatization of services for public education and examines the shift from public interest and control to private and corporate shareholder hegemony Most states educational responsibilities assessment of constituents curriculum development and instructional protocols are increasingly being outsourced to private enterprises in an effort to reduce state budgets These enterprises have been given wide access to state resources such as public data from state sanctioned testing results field testing rights to public schools and financial assistance Chapter authors challenge this paradigm as well as the model that has set growing premiums on accountability and performance measures Connecting common impact between the standards movement and the privatization of education this book lays bare the repercussions of high stakes accountability coupled with increasing privatization Winner of The Society of Professors of Education Book Award 2018 Misplaced Blame Bonnie Johnson, 2021-10-14 Misplaced Blame Decades of Failing Schools Their Children and Their Teachers examines the underlying causes of why schools fail The book describes the challenges that teachers and their pupils encounter in an environment that is dictated by poverty and harsh unfunded mandates The volume illustrates that school failure reflects a lack of opportunities nothing more The book also discusses the changing role of teachers over the years and teacher led efforts to improve their students circumstances Homeschooling Laws Steve Deckard, 2001-09 Resources in Education , 2000-04 The Wisconsin Environmental Education Board ... Grant Recipients Wisconsin Environmental Education Board, 1999 Creating Effective Community Partnerships for School Improvement Hazel Carter, 2013-09-02 Creating Effective Partnerships for School Improvement places the school within the community which is composed of a number of key players including school leaders classroom teachers private foundations higher education institutions business and community based organizations and government agencies This book encourages leaders to embrace this broader community of stakeholders and to focus on the often overlooked and underutilized college and university partnerships Grounded in case study analysis of innovative programs and practices this book explores research based strategies for educational leaders to implement in order to develop and sustain effective partnerships Creating Effective Partnerships for School Improvement is an important text for aspiring and practicing administrators interested in creating effective partnerships for school improvement Special Features Reflective exercises and portfolio building activities help aspiring and practicing leaders make on the ground connections Learning objectives key terms and additional resources further engage readers with the chapter content Extensive appendices with sample activities evaluation plans meeting agendas promotional materials and budgets provide additional support to leaders Alignment to the Educational Leadership Constituent Council ELCC Standards
